The Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA) provides support and fosters partnerships that empower people to live in, contribute to, and participate in their communities. Programs administered by DDA are designed to assist individuals with developmental disabilities and their families obtain services and supports based on individual preferences, capabilities and needs. An individual must meet the definition of a developmental disability as defined in Washington State law under RCW 71A in order to receive supports or services.

Eligible individuals may receive services, including case management, to plan and arrange individual personal care services; in home family support services; employment and community access programs; and out of home residential supports and services.

Program Mission

To transform lives by providing support and fostering partnerships that empower people to live the lives they want.
