The Columbia River Gorge Commission plans for and manages the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area in partnership with Washington, Oregon, six counties, thirteen communities, the United States Forest Service, and four Native American Treaty Tribes. Created under the National Scenic Area Act and an interstate compact between Washington and Oregon, the bi-state Gorge Commission is mandated to protect and enhance the scenic, natural, cultural, and recreational resources of the Columbia River Gorge and to protect and support the economy of the Columbia River Gorge area by encouraging growth in existing urban areas and by allowing economic development consistent with efforts to protect scenic area resources.

Agency Mission

The mission of the Columbia River Gorge Commission is to establish, implement, and enforce policies and programs that protect and enhance the scenic, natural, recreational, and cultural resources of the Columbia River Gorge and support the economy of the area by encouraging growth to occur in existing urban areas and allowing economic development consistent with resource protection.
