60 Moving Expenses

60.30.30.b	The deduction from the employee's pay for the employee's share of moving costs (if any) is to be made after withholding of mandatory payroll deductions but prior to withholding any voluntary payroll deductions. Mandatory payroll deductions are defined as:
	• Federal Income Tax.
	• Employee's Share of OASI Contributions.
	Medical Aid Contributions.
	Mandatory Retirement Contributions.
	• Court Ordered Payments served on the agency .
	• Employee's share of medical insurance.
60.30.30.c	This payroll deduction authorization is to remain in force until the total amount of the employee's share of the cost of the move has been recovered.
60.30.30.d	New or transferred employees who do not execute a payroll deduction authorization prior to the authorization of the move will be responsible for arranging their own move and making full payment directly to the carrier. The state will reimburse the employee under this circumstance for either the amount the state would have paid if the move had been arranged through the State Traffic Manager of the Office of State Procurement or the actual cost incurred by the employee, whichever is less.
60.30.40 Jan. 1, 2000	The agency pays for insurance
	The premium for the state household goods blanket insurance policy for up to $75,000 will be paid to the insurance company by the state agency.
60.30.50 Jan. 1, 2000	Damage claim procedure
	The employee should understand that any claim for loss or damage must be negotiated directly between the employee and the mover and/or insurance carrier. The State Traffic Manager of the Office of State Procurement will provide claim forms to the employee for goods moved by common carrier, and will assist the employee and the carrier in resolving any dispute.
