

Travel Freeze Exemption Report to OFM

Agency: Washington State Department of Financial Institutions

Program: N/A

Agency Director signature:

Date	Position Title	Total Cost	Fund Source	Rationale for Approving Exemption
12/6/2024	Financial Examiner 2	$150	300-6	It is critical that DFI maintain its accreditation with National Associations. These associations require 21-28 credit hours of training/continuing education a year, which is not offered locally or virtually. A majority of the travel costs for this essential training was covered by an outside entity.
12/6/2024	Financial Examiner 2	$150	300-6	It is critical that DFI maintain its accreditation with National Associations. These associations require 21-28 credit hours of training/continuing education a year, which is not offered locally or virtually. A majority of the travel costs for this essential training was covered by an outside entity.
12/6/2024	Financial Examiner 2	$150	300-6	It is critical that DFI maintain its accreditation with National Associations. These associations require 21-28 credit hours of training/continuing education a year, which is not offered locally or virtually. A majority of the travel costs for this essential training was covered by an outside entity.
12/6/2024	Chief of Safety and Soundness Examinations	$150	300-6	It is critical that DFI maintain its accreditation with National Associations. These associations require 21-28 credit hours of training/continuing education a year, which is not offered locally or virtually. A majority of the travel costs for this essential training was covered by an outside entity.
12/6/2024	Financial Examiner Supervisor	$150	300-6	It is critical that DFI maintain its accreditation with National Associations. These associations require 21-28 credit hours of training/continuing education a year, which is not offered locally or virtually. A majority of the travel costs for this essential training was covered by an outside entity.
12/6/2024	Financial Examiner 4	$150	300-6	It is critical that DFI maintain its accreditation with National Associations. These associations require 21-28 credit hours of training/continuing education a year, which is not offered locally or virtually. A majority of the travel costs for this essential training was covered by an outside entity.