7/2/2025	University of WA	The purpose of this contract is for the UW TelePain and Pain & Opioid Provider Hotline to deliver comprehensive, statewide access to multidisciplinary pain expertise. TelePain provides a structured, case-based learning consultation environment. The Pain & Opioid Provider Hotline offers real-time, direct consultation for providers managing complex pain and opioid-related cases, often for clinicians who lack local access to pain specialists. This Hotline ensures that time-sensitive decisions can be made with expert guidance, improving patient safety, supporting opioid stewardship, and helping providers navigate challenging regulatory and prescribing requirements. Under Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 246-919-930, clinicians prescribing patients a morphine equivalent dose (MED) ≥120 mg/day are required to consult with a pain specialist. TelePain and the Pain & Opioid Hotline fulfill this legal requirement by providing timely access to pain specialists statewide	07/01/2025 - 06/30/2027	$400,000.00	Split Funding 50% GFS; 50% GFF	Essential Necessary to continue critical services or agency operations
