ARTICLE 1
RECOGNITION CLAUSE

1.1 Recognition

In accordance with the actions of the Washington Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) on April 7, 2020, the State of Washington (“Employer”) recognizes the Fish and Wildlife Officers Guild (“Union”) as the exclusive bargaining representative for all employees in the classifications covered by this Agreement, as identified in Section 1.2 of this Article for the purpose of establishing terms and conditions of employment in accordance with the provisions of RCW 41.56.

1.2 Bargaining Unit

The Washington PERC shall determine which commissioned officers shall be included within the bargaining unit. This Agreement does not cover any statutorily excluded positions.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

2.1 The Employer and the Union agree to support and encourage diversity in the workplace and prevent all forms of discrimination. Both parties acknowledge that we maximize the potential of every employee when we treat all employees with respect and dignity. Our commitment to diversity and inclusion must be present and demonstrated each day to create fairer and more equitable outcomes.

2.2 Under this Agreement, neither party will discriminate against employees on the basis of religion, age, sex, marital status, race, color, genetic information, creed, national origin, political affiliation, military status, status as a veteran who has received an honorable discharge or been discharged with an honorable record, a disabled veteran or Vietnam era veteran, status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, citizenship, immigration status, sexual orientation, gender expression, gender identity, any real or perceived sensory, mental or physical disability, or union activities. Bona fide occupational qualifications based on the above traits do not violate this Article.

2.3 Both parties agree that unlawful harassment will not be tolerated, including disparate treatment and hostile work environment on the basis of any of the categories listed in Section 2.1.

2.4 Employees who feel they have been the subjects or witnesses of discrimination are encouraged to discuss such issues with their supervisor or other management staff, or file a complaint in accordance with agency policy. In cases where an employee files both a grievance and an internal complaint regarding the alleged discrimination, the grievance process will be immediately suspended until the internal complaint process has been completed. Following completion of the internal complaint process, the Union may request the grievance process be continued. Such request must be made within seven (7) calendar days of the employee and the Union being notified in writing of the findings of the internal complaint.

- 2.5 Both parties agree that nothing in this Agreement will prevent the implementation of an approved affirmative action plan.

ARTICLE 3 BID SYSTEM

3.1 Applicability

- A. This Article does not apply to the filling of non-permanent positions.
- B. The Employer will comply with the provisions of this Article prior to filling vacancies in accordance with Article 4, Filling of Vacancies.

- 3.2 A. Openings will be posted via department intranet and e-mail for a period of not less than fourteen (14) calendar days. Eligible employees may bid on openings during the posting period.

Eligible employees are defined as those who:

- (1) hold or who have held permanent status in the level of the bid position; and
 - (2) does not include any employee who has not had a minimum of two (2) years in their initial Independent Status duty station, unless approved by the Chief or designee.
- B. If a new or vacant position is to be filled, time in grade will prevail provided the employee has the basic skills and abilities necessary to perform the duties of the specific position. Time in grade includes all non-permanent, probationary, trial service and permanent time in the employee's job classification within the Department of Fisheries, Department of Game/Wildlife, and Department of Fish and Wildlife.

An employee's bid request may be denied if the employee has had documented performance problems of an on-going nature within the past two (2) years.

- C. Employees who are awarded a bid will fill the position thirty (30) calendar days following the notification of selection. Employees will be paid travel in accordance with Article 21, Travel, with prior written approval by the Chief or designee. Extensions of the above time period may only be granted by the Chief or designee on a case-by-case basis.
- D. Employees will have a ninety (90) calendar day period to establish a permanent residence after filling the bid. Extensions of the above time period may only be granted by the Chief or designee on a case-by-case basis.

Sergeants must establish a permanent residence within forty (40) miles of the legal boundary of a city and within the geographic boundaries as designated by the Department during the bid process. Residency requirements established prior to July 1, 2017, will remain in effect. However, if an employee is in the position whose residency requirement was established prior to July 1, 2017, the employee may request that the Employer establish a new residency requirement utilizing the provisions of this subsection. The Chief or designee will select a city or town from which the mile limit will be measured. The Employer will not pay for any moving expenses related to employee-requested moves.

Officers and Detectives must establish a permanent residence within twenty (20) miles of the legal boundary of a city or cities and/or within geographic boundaries as designated by the Chief or designee during the bid process. Residency requirements established prior to July 1, 2017, will remain in effect. If an employee is in the position whose residency requirement was established prior to July 1, 2017, the employee may request that the Chief or designee establish a new residency requirement utilizing the provisions of this subsection. The Chief or designee will select a city or cities from which the mile limit will be measured. The Employer will not pay for any moving expenses related to employee requested moves.

E. Permanent residence is defined as where an employee primarily lives and actually resides. The Employee will produce for inspection the following information upon request by the Chief:

1. Mailing address;
2. Utility and service bills;
3. Residence, rental or ownership agreement; and
4. Emergency data card (used by WildCom and WSP Dispatch).

F. The parties agree that the permanent residence will be the official duty station.

G. Hardship Transfers

For purposes of this Article, a “hardship” is defined as a military deployment, a medical or safety-threatening situation causing specific loss or suffering to an employee or the employee’s family member as defined in Article 13.2\(K\)\(1\). Employees who have a hardship may request a hardship transfer to a vacant or new position. To maintain confidentiality of private and/or medical information, requests for hardship will be submitted to the FWOG Legal Counsel. Those supported by the FWOG Legal Counsel will be forwarded with a written record of support, including the original employee request and all supporting documentation, to the Appointing Authority/Chief for consideration. The Appointing Authority/Chief's decision on the request for a hardship transfer will be final and is not subject to the grievance procedure.

H. Measuring Distance for Residency Compliance

The Internet mapping program Google Maps (fastest route) will be the official measurement of the distance from the boundary of the assigned geographic area, or from the detachment office or duty station, to the employee's residence. If Google Maps does not recognize a street name or address, the employee will be responsible for finding the nearest address that is recognized and then driving the remaining distance with the supervisor to determine whether the residence is within the mileage limitations.

The mileage determination will not contain water (ferry) miles, airline, straight line or any other method of mileage measurement other than paved, maintained streets that are generally open and passable during all seasons, and available to be used by employees to travel to and from their duty station.

ARTICLE 4 FILLING OF VACANCIES

- 4.1 The Employer will determine when a position will be filled, the type of appointment to be used when filling the position, and the skills and abilities necessary to perform the duties of the specific position within a job classification that is being filled. If the Employer intends to convert a position which results in it no longer being in the bargaining unit, the Employer will fulfill its obligation to bargain. Only those candidates who have the position-specific skills and abilities required to perform the duties of the vacant position will be referred by Human Resources for further consideration by the hiring manager.
- 4.2 The statewide layoff list will consist of employees who have elected to place their name on the statewide layoff list in accordance with WAC 357-46-080.
- 4.3 A promotional candidate is defined as an employee who has completed the probationary period within a permanent appointment and has attained permanent status within the Agency.
- 4.4 A transfer candidate is defined as an employee in permanent status in the same classification as the vacancy within the Agency.
- 4.5 A voluntary demotion candidate is defined as an employee in permanent status moving to a class in a lower salary range maximum within the Agency.
- 4.6 When filling a vacant position with a permanent appointment, candidates will be certified for further consideration in the following manner:

- A. The most senior candidate on the Agency’s internal layoff list with the required skills and abilities who has indicated an appropriate geographic availability will be appointed to the position.
- B. If there are no names on the internal layoff list, the Agency will certify up to twenty (20) candidates for further consideration. Up to seventy-five percent (75%) of those candidates will be statewide layoff, agency promotional, internal transfers, and agency voluntary demotions. All candidates certified must have the position-specific skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position to be filled. If there is a tie for the last position on the certification for either promotional or other candidates, the Agency may consider up to ten (10) additional tied candidates. The Agency may supplement the certification with additional tied candidates and replace other candidates who waive consideration with like candidates from the original pool.
- C. Employees in the General Government Transition Pool Program who have the skills and abilities to perform the duties of the vacant position may be considered along with all other candidates who have the skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position.
- D. If the certified candidate pool does not contain at least three (3) affirmative action candidates, the Agency may add up to three (3) affirmative action candidates to the names certified for the position.
- E. When recruiting for multiple positions, the Agency may add an additional five (5) agency candidates and five (5) other candidates to the certified list for each additional position.

ARTICLE 5
HIRING AND APPOINTMENTS

5.1 Filling Positions

The Employer will determine when a position will be filled, the recruitment process that will be utilized, the type of appointment to be used when filling the position, and the skills and abilities necessary to perform the duties of the specific position within a job classification. When recruiting for a permanent bargaining unit appointment, the recruitment announcement will be open for a minimum of seven (7) calendar days.

5.2 Internal Movement – Permanent Employees

- A. Prior to certifying candidates in accordance with Article 4, Filling of Vacancies, an Appointing Authority may grant an administrative transfer, promotion, voluntary demotion or elevation within an agency as long as the permanent employee has the skills and abilities required to perform the duties of the position. Employees desiring a transfer, promotion, voluntary demotion or elevation will initiate a request in writing, to the appropriate Appointing Authority and to the agency human resources director. Appointing Authorities will consider these individuals for an opening. Candidates interviewed will be notified of the hiring decision. This subsection does not apply to those positions that have a required bid system established in accordance with Article 3, Bid System, unless the position remains vacant after the completion of the bid process.

5.3 Permanent Status

An employee will attain permanent status in a job classification upon their successful completion of a probationary, trial service or transition review period.

5.4 Types of Appointment

A. Non-Permanent

1. The Employer may make non-permanent appointments. A non-permanent appointee must have the skills and abilities required for the position. When the Employer converts a non-permanent appointment to a permanent appointment, the employee will serve a probationary or trial service period.
2. An employee with permanent status may accept a non-permanent appointment. At least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to accepting the appointment, the employee must notify their current Appointing Authority of the intent to accept a non-permanent appointment. Upon notification of the employee's intent, the employee's permanent agency will notify the employee, in writing, of any return rights to the Agency and the duration of those return rights. At a minimum, the Agency must provide the employee access to the Agency's internal layoff list. After receipt of this notification the employee may elect to accept or turn down the appointment offer.
3. The Employer may convert a non-permanent appointment into a permanent appointment if the Employer used a competitive process to fill the non-permanent appointment or if the non-permanent appointment was filled using a veteran placement program. With the exception of FWOG, before converting a non-permanent appointment into a permanent appointment, Article 3, Bid System, must be followed. For a conversion, the employee will serve a probationary or trial service period.
4. The Employer may end a non-permanent appointment at any time by giving one (1) working day's notice to the employee, however if practicable, the Employer may provide more than one (1) working day's notice. Non-permanent appointments normally will not exceed twenty-four (24) consecutive months in duration.

B. In-Training Employment

1. The Employer may designate specific positions, groups of positions, or all positions in a job classification or series as in-training. The Employer will document the training program, including a description and length of the program.
2. A candidate who is initially hired into an in-training position must successfully complete the job requirements of the appointment. The Employer may separate from state service, any employee who has completed the probationary period for an in-training appointment but does not successfully complete the subsequent trial service periods required by the in-training program. Employees who are not successful may be separated at any time with three (3) working days' notice from the Employer.
3. An employee with permanent status who accepts an in-training appointment will serve a trial service period or periods, depending on the requirements of the in-training program. The Employer may revert an employee who does not successfully complete the trial service period or periods at any time with three (3) working days' notice. The employee's reversion right will be to the job classification that the employee held permanent status in prior to their in-training appointment, in accordance with Subsection 5.5 B of this Article.
4. A trial service period may be required for each level of the in-training appointment, or the entire in-training appointment may be designated as the trial service period. The Employer will determine the length of the trial service period or periods to be served by an employee in an in-training appointment.
5. If a trial service period is required for each level of the in-training appointment, the employee will attain permanent status upon successful completion of the training program at each level.
6. If the entire in-training program—meaning all levels within the in-training appointment—is designated as a trial service period, the employee will attain permanent status upon successful completion of the training requirements for the entire in-training program.

5.5 Review Periods

A. Probationary Period

1. Every part-time and full-time employee, following their initial appointment to a permanent position, will serve a probationary period of twelve (12) consecutive months.

2. The Employer may separate a probationary employee at any time during the probationary period. The Employer will provide the employee five (5) working days' notice prior to the effective date of the separation. The day that notification is given is considered the first day of notice. If the Employer fails to provide five (5) working days' notice, the separation will stand and the employee will be entitled to payment of salary for up to five (5) working days, which the employee would have worked had notice been given. Under no circumstances will notice deficiencies result in an employee gaining permanent status. The separation of the probationary employee will not be subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.
3. The Employer will extend an employee's probationary period, on a day-for-day basis, for any day(s) or hours rounded to equivalent days that the employee is on leave without pay, sick leave or shared leave, except for leave taken for military service.
4. An employee who transfers or is promoted prior to completing their initial probationary period will serve a new probationary period. The length of the new probationary period may be adjusted by the Appointing Authority for time already served in probationary status. In no case, however, will the total probationary period be less than twelve (12) months.
5. If the Employer converts the status of a non-permanent appointment to a permanent appointment, the incumbent employee will serve a probationary period. However, the Employer may credit time worked in a non-permanent appointment toward completion of a probationary period within the same job classification.

B. Trial Service Period

1. Except for those employees in an in-training appointment, all other employees with permanent status who are promoted, or who voluntarily accept a transfer or demotion into a job classification for which they have not previously attained permanent status, will serve a trial service period of twelve (12) consecutive months. The Employer will conduct a performance review six (6) months into the trial service period.
2. Any employee serving a trial service period will have their trial service period extended, on a day-for-day basis, for any day(s) that the employee is on leave without pay or shared leave, except for leave taken for military service.
3. An employee serving a trial service period may voluntarily revert to their former position within fifteen (15) days of the appointment, provided that the position has not been filled or an offer has not been made to an applicant. With the Appointing Authority's approval, an employee serving a trial service period may voluntarily revert at any time to a funded permanent position in the same agency that is:

- a. Vacant or filled by a non-permanent employee and is within the employee's previously held job classification; or
- b. Vacant or filled by a non-permanent employee at or below the employee's previous salary range.

The reversion option, if any, will be determined by the Employer using the order listed above. In both (a) and (b) above, the Employer will determine the position the employee may revert to and the employee must have the skills and abilities required for the position.

4. With a minimum three (3) days' written notice by the Employer, an employee who does not successfully complete their trial service period has the right to revert to a position, if available, in the same agency that is:

- a. Vacant or filled by a non-permanent employee and is within the employee's previously held job classification; or
- b. Vacant or filled by a non-permanent employee at or below the employee's previous salary range.

In both (a) and (b) above, the Employer will determine the position the employee may revert to and the employee must have the skills and abilities required for the position.

5. Any unsuccessful employee who has no reversion options may request that their name be placed on the Agency's internal layoff list and into the General Government Transition Pool Program for positions in job classifications where they had previously attained permanent status.
6. The reversion of employees who are unsuccessful during their trial service period is not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

ARTICLE 6

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

6.1 Objective

The performance evaluation process gives supervisors an opportunity to discuss performance goals and expectations with their employees, assess and review their performance with regard to those goals and expectations, and provide support to employees in their professional development, so that skills and abilities can be aligned with agency requirements. It is the responsibility of the supervisor to have a discussion with the employee to review the employee's evaluation prior to submitting the evaluation to Human Resources.

- 6.2
- A. Employee work performance will be evaluated prior to the completion of their probationary and trial service periods and at least annually thereafter. Immediate supervisors will meet with employees at the start of their review period to discuss performance goals and expectations. Employees will receive copies of their performance goals and expectations as well as notification of any modifications made during the review period.
 - B. The performance evaluation process will include, but not be limited to, a performance evaluation on forms used by the Employer, the employee's signature or electronic acknowledgment of the forms, and any comments by the employee. A copy of the performance evaluation will be provided to the employee at the time of the review. If the need arises, the reviewer (typically the second line supervisor) may function as a mediator upon the request of either the supervisor or the employee. The employee has the right to submit a written rebuttal to the content of the evaluation. The completed and signed/acknowledged performance evaluation forms, including the employee's comments, will be maintained in the employee's personnel file.
 - C. To recognize employee accomplishments and address performance issues in a timely manner, discussions between the employee and supervisor will occur throughout the evaluation period. Performance problems will be brought to the attention of the employee to give the employee the opportunity to correct the behavior. Such discussions will be documented in the supervisor's file. Nothing in this section is intended to limit the ability of the Employer to take corrective or disciplinary action pursuant to the terms of Article 28, Discipline.
 - D. The evaluation process is subject to the grievance procedure. The specific content of performance evaluations are not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.
 - E. If an employee has been exonerated of misconduct in a disciplinary grievance by the Employer or an arbitrator, or the Employer determines that allegations of misconduct are false, then references to the misconduct in the performance evaluation will be removed. If the Employer fails to remove the applicable portions of the performance evaluation, the failure to remove those references is subject to the grievance procedure.

14.4 The Agency Head will determine the amount of donated leave an employee may receive and may only authorize an employee to use up to a maximum of five hundred twenty-two (522) days of shared leave during total state employment. The Employer may authorize leave in excess of five hundred twenty-two (522) days in extraordinary circumstances for an employee qualifying for the program because they are suffering from an illness, injury, impairment or physical or mental condition which is of an extraordinary or severe nature. ARTICLE 15

FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE, PARENTAL LEAVE - PREGNANCY DISABILITY LEAVE AND PAID FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE

Definitions used in this Article will be in accordance with the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). The Employer and the employees will comply with existing and any adopted federal FMLA regulations.

15.1 Federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA)

- A. Consistent with the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA) and any amendments thereto an employee who has worked for the state for at least twelve (12) months and for at least one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hours during the twelve (12) months prior to the requested leave is entitled to up to twelve (12) workweeks of family medical leave in a twelve (12) month period for any one or more of the following reasons 1-4:
 - 1. Parental leave for the birth and to care for a newborn child, or placement for adoption or foster care of a child and to care for that child;
 - 2. Personal medical leave due to the employee's own serious health condition that requires the employee's absence from work;

3. Family medical leave to care for a spouse, child, parent, or state registered domestic partner as defined by RCW 26.60.020 and 26.60.030, who suffers from a serious health condition that requires on-site care or supervision by the employee. Because the FMLA does not recognize state registered domestic partners, an absence to care for an employee's state registered domestic partner in accordance with the WFLA will not be counted towards the twelve (12) weeks of FMLA.
4. Family medical leave for a qualifying exigency when the employee's spouse, state registered domestic partner as defined by RCW 26.60.020 and 26.60.030, child of any age, or parent is on active duty or call to active duty status of the Reserves or National Guard for deployment to a foreign country. Qualifying exigencies include attending certain military events, arranging for alternate childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.
5. Military Caregiver Leave will be provided to an eligible employee who is the spouse, child of any age, parent or next of kin of a covered service member to take up to twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave in a single twelve (12) month period to care for the covered service member or veteran who is suffering from a serious illness or injury incurred in the line of duty.

During the single twelve (12) month period during which Military Caregiver Leave is taken, the employee may only take a combined total of twenty-six (26) weeks of leave for Military Caregiver Leave and leave taken for the other FMLA qualifying reasons.

The single twelve (12) month period to care for a covered service member begins on the first day the employee takes leave for this reason and ends twelve (12) months later, regardless of the twelve (12) month period established for other types of FMLA leave.

- B. Entitlement to family medical leave for the care of a newborn child or newly adopted or foster child ends twelve (12) months from the date of birth or the placement of the foster or adopted child.
- C. The one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hour eligibility requirement noted above does not count paid time off such as time used as vacation leave, sick leave, exchange time, personal holidays, compensatory time off, or shared leave.
- D. The FMLA entitlement period will be a rolling twelve (12) month period measured forward from the date an employee begins family medical leave.

Each time an employee takes family medical leave during the twelve (12) month period, the leave will be subtracted from the twelve (12) weeks of available leave.

- E. The Employer will continue the employee's existing employer-paid health insurance, life insurance and disability insurance benefits during the period of leave covered by FMLA. The employee will be required to pay their share of health insurance, life insurance and disability insurance premiums.
- F. The Employer has the authority to designate absences that meet the criteria of the FMLA. The use of any paid or unpaid leave (excluding leave for a work-related illness or injury covered by workers' compensation or assault benefits and compensatory time) for a FMLA qualifying event will run concurrently with, not in addition to, the use of the FMLA for that event. An employee has the option of using some, or all of their paid leave for a FMLA qualifying event, but must follow the notice and certification requirements relating to FMLA usage in addition to any notice and certification requirements relating to the use of paid leave.
- G. The Employer may require certification from the employee's, the family member's, or the covered service member's health care provider for the purpose of qualifying for FMLA.
- H. Personal medical leave, serious health condition leave or serious injury or illness leave covered by the FMLA may be taken intermittently when certified as medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the Employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.
- I. Upon returning to work after the employee's own FMLA-qualifying illness, the employee may be required to provide a fitness for duty certificate from a health care provider. Once the employee provides the fitness for duty certification, the agency will not delay the return to work while the agency seeks clarification and authentication from the employee's health care provider.
- J. The employee will provide the Employer with not less than thirty (30) days' notice before the FMLA is to begin. If the need for the leave is unforeseeable thirty (30) days in advance, then the employee will provide such notice as is reasonable and practicable.

15.2 Parental Leave

- A. Parental leave will be granted to the employee for the purpose of bonding with the employee's newborn, adoptive or foster child. Parental leave may extend up to six (6) months, including time covered by the FMLA, during the first year after the child's birth or placement. Leave beyond the period covered by FMLA may only be denied by the Employer due to operational necessity. Such denial may be grieved beginning at the agency director step of the grievance procedure in Article 29.

- B. Parental leave may be a combination of the employee's accrued vacation leave, sick leave, personal holiday, compensatory time, personal leave day, exchange time, or leave without pay. Sick leave may only be used for the same time period the employee is approved and using FMLA leave for baby bonding purposes.

15.3 Pregnancy Disability Leave

- A. Leave for pregnancy or childbirth related disability is in addition to any leave granted under FMLA.
- B. Pregnancy disability leave will be granted for the period of time that an employee is sick or temporarily disabled because of pregnancy and/or childbirth. An employee must submit a written request for disability leave due to pregnancy and/or childbirth in accordance with agency policy. An employee may be required to submit medical certification or verification for the period of the disability. Such leave due to pregnancy and/or childbirth may be a combination of sick leave, vacation leave, personal holiday, compensatory time, exchange time, personal leave day, and leave without pay. The combination and use of paid and unpaid leave will be the choice of the employee.

15.4 The parties recognize that the Department of Labor could further define the amendments to FMLA. The Employer and employees will comply with existing and any newly developed federal FMLA regulations, interpretations and/or definitions.

15.5 Washington Family and Medical Leave Program Effective January 1, 2020

The parties recognize that the Washington Family and Medical Leave Program (RCW 50A) is in effect. Eligibility for and approval of leave for purposes as described under that Program shall be in accordance with RCW 50A and the rules promulgated thereunder. The employee will provide the Employer with not less than thirty (30) days' notice before PFML is to begin. If the need for the leave is unforeseeable thirty (30) days in advance, then the employee will provide such notice as is reasonable and practicable.

If selected to be on a jury, employee-requested schedule changes will be approved, to accommodate jury duty service. If employees are released from jury duty and there are more than two (2) hours remaining on their work shift, they may be required to return to work.

16.3 A subpoenaed employee will receive paid leave, during scheduled work time, to appear as a witness in a court or an administrative hearing for work-related cases, unless the employee:

- A. Is a party in the matter and is not represented by the Attorney General's Office of the state of Washington, or
- B. Has an economic interest in the matter.

Nothing in this Section will preclude an employee from receiving regular pay, travel expenses and per diem to appear in court or an administrative hearing on behalf of the Employer.

16.4 Employees will not be eligible for per diem or travel expenses under this Article.

16.5 Bereavement Leave

- A. An employee is entitled to three (3) days of paid bereavement leave if the employee's family member or household member dies. An employee may request less than three (3) days of bereavement leave.

- E. For purposes of this subsection, a family member is defined in Subsection 13.2(K)(1); a household member is defined in Subsection 13.2(K)(3); and a relative is defined in Subsection 13.2(K)(2).

- A. An employee may choose one (1) workday as a personal leave day per fiscal year during the life of this Agreement if the employee has been continuously employed for more than six (6) months.
- B. The Employer will release the employee from work on the day selected for personal leave if:
 - 1. The employee has given at least fourteen (14) calendar days' written notice to their supervisor. However, the supervisor has the discretion to allow a shorter notice period.
 - 2. The number of employees selecting a particular day off does not prevent the agency from providing continued public service.
- C. Personal leave may not be carried over.
- D. Part-time and on-call employees who are employed during the month in which the personal leave day is taken will be compensated for the personal leave day in an amount proportionate to the time in pay status during the month to that required for full-time employment.
- E. Upon request, an employee will be approved to use part or all of their personal leave day for:
 - 1. The care for family members as required by the Family Care Act, WAC 296-130;
 - 2. Leave as required by the Military Family Leave Act, RCW 49.77 and in accordance with Article 18.11; or

3. Leave as required by the Domestic Violence Leave Act, RCW 49.76.

16.7 Life-Giving Procedures, Blood Platelet and Fluid Donations

- A. When approved, employees will receive paid leave, not to exceed thirty (30) working days in a two (2) year period, for participating in life-giving procedures. Such leave shall not be charged against sick leave or annual leave, and use of leave without pay is not required. “Life-giving procedure” is defined as a medically-supervised procedure involving the testing, sampling, or donation of organs, tissues, and other human body components for the purposes of donation, without compensation, to a person or organization for medically necessary treatments. “Life giving procedure” does not include the donation of blood or plasma. Employees will provide reasonable advance notice and written proof from an accredited medical institution, physician or other medical professional that the employee participated in a life-giving procedure. Agencies may take into account program and staffing replacement requirements in the scheduling of leave for life-giving procedures.
- B. When approved, employees will receive paid leave, not to exceed five (5) working days in a two (2) year period, for the donation of blood platelets or fluids to a person or organization for medically necessary treatments. - C. Any accrued sick leave, up to a maximum of three (3) days in any calendar year; and
- D. Leave without pay.

Although the types of paid leave will be used in the order listed above, and each type of paid leave will be exhausted before the next is used, employees will be permitted to use leave without pay rather than vacation or sick leave at their request.

 - 2. Testing will be conducted in such a way to ensure maximum accuracy and reliability by using the techniques, chain of custody procedures, equipment and laboratory facilities, which have been approved by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.  - 4. Emergency data card (used by WildCom and WSP dispatch).

ARTICLE 25 OFF-DUTY CONDUCT

- 25.2 Off Duty Employment

Employees will notify the Employer prior to engaging in any off-duty employment. Employees may engage in off-duty employment that is in accordance with agency/program policy and will not interfere with the performance of their duties or result in a conflict of interest.

25.3 Law enforcement officers are employed in positions of public trust. Employees must act in a way on and off duty that maintains the trust and confidence of the community they serve and avoids damaging the reputation and trust WDFW Enforcement Program has with the public. ARTICLE 27 DEFENSE AND INDEMNIFICATION

ARTICLE 28 DISCIPLINE

28.1 Just Cause

The Employer will not discipline any permanent employee without just cause.

The parties agree that the Employer is required to make certain disclosures to prosecuting attorneys pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). Even if the underlying facts surrounding the disclosure may give rise to discipline, the parties agree that the disclosure or subsequent prosecutorial designation will not be the sole basis for the discipline.

28.2 Employee Privacy

When disciplining an employee, the Employer will make a reasonable effort to protect the privacy of the employee.

28.3 Forms of Discipline

Discipline includes oral and written reprimands, reduction in pay, suspension, demotion, and discharge.

28.4 Investigative Process

- A. The Employer has the authority to determine the method of conducting investigations and develop and follow appropriate guidelines for conducting investigations, including the DFW Law Enforcement Program Administrative Investigation Regulation. The Employer will notify the Union of those guidelines and of any amendments, consistent with Article 43.5. The provisions of Article 28.4 and 28.5 shall apply only to investigations that may lead to discipline.
- B. Upon written request by the Union to the HR Director or designee, if an investigation lasts longer than forty-five (45) days from the date the employee was notified of the investigation, the Employer will notify the Union in writing of the current status of the investigation (for example: interviews pending, drafting of investigative report, waiting for analysis of data) and the Employer will provide an anticipated timeframe for completion. The Employer will provide its response to the Union's request for the current status of the investigation at least ten (10) days from the date of request by the Union. However, in the event the Employer does not respond to the Union's request for a status of the investigation within ten (10) days, the failure to meet this timeframe will not be a basis for challenging the disciplinary action or precluding admissibility of evidence.
- C. At the conclusion of any investigation where the Employer elects not to take disciplinary action, the employee will be provided with a notification when the investigation is completed and that no discipline will be imposed.

28.5 Investigatory Interviews

- A. Unless exigent circumstances exist, the Employer will notify the employee at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of an investigative interview, including the time and location of the interview. The forty-eight (48) hours notification period may be waived upon mutual agreement of the parties. The notification will include the nature of the interview, the date of the incident (if known), and a summary of the allegations against the employee sufficient to reasonably apprise the employee of the nature of the investigation.
- B. The questioning shall be conducted at a reasonable hour, preferably when the employee is scheduled to work, unless the seriousness of the investigation requires otherwise. If such questioning occurs during a scheduled day off for the employee being questioned, the employee shall be compensated for such time in accordance with regular Employer procedures.

Any questioning session shall be for a reasonable period, taking into consideration the gravity and complexity of the issue being investigated. Employees being questioned shall be allowed to attend to their own personal physical necessities as needed. Employees shall not be subjected to any offensive language, nor shall investigators make promises or threats as an inducement to answer questions.

C. Upon request, an employee has the right to a Union representative at an investigatory interview called by the Employer, if the employee reasonably believes discipline could result. An employee may also have a Union representative at a pre-disciplinary meeting. If the requested representative is not reasonably available, the employee will select another representative who is available. Employees seeking representation are responsible for contacting their representative. The role of the representative is to provide assistance and counsel to the employee, consistent with the law. The exercise of rights in this Article must not interfere with the Employer's right to conduct the investigation.

D. Employees have a duty to fully cooperate with an Agency investigation. Employees retain the rights afforded to them by the Constitution of the United States and the State of Washington, as well as all of the protections of the statutes of Washington and this Collective Bargaining Agreement.

The Employer will compel employees who are the subject of an administrative investigation(s) to fully participate in the investigatory interview(s).

E. The Employer will allow a reasonable break for an employee participating in an investigatory interview.

F. An employee shall not be compelled to prepare a response, written, or recorded statement pertaining to any use of deadly force. Employees involved in the use of deadly force shall be allowed to consult with a Union representative, and an attorney prior to being ordered to provide a statement regarding the use of deadly force. The employee will not be required to make any statement, written or otherwise, regarding the use of deadly force for seventy-two (72) hours after the incident. The affected employee may waive the requirement to wait seventy-two (72) hours.

G. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent an employee from giving a public safety statement at the scene to preserve evidence, identify witnesses or otherwise protect officer and/or public safety. The parties agree that public safety statements are necessary to ensure public safety and scene integrity.

H. Investigations shall be completed within one hundred fifty (150) calendar days. If the investigation cannot be completed within these timeframes, an extension may be granted in accordance with Article 28.5 I or J. Investigations shall be deemed completed when the employee is advised of the Employer's contemplated discipline by issuance of a pre-disciplinary letter.

- I. Investigations may be extended due to reasonably determined, exigent circumstances beyond the control of the Employer. Such circumstances will be identified by the investigator and shall include, but are not limited, to the following:
 1. Complexity of the investigation;
 2. Pre-scheduled, extended leave (including extended annual leave or mandatory training) or unexpected illness of personnel integral to the investigation;
 3. Unavailability of witnesses after reasonable efforts to locate;
 4. Undue delays in transcription of interview tapes;
 5. Delays caused by the Association or its representatives; and/or
 6. Emergencies.
- J. Investigations covered by Article 28.4 and 28.5 may also be extended if the Chief or Agency Director requests specific, additional investigation. If at any time during an administrative investigation it appears the employee's action or omissions may constitute criminal misconduct, the administrative investigation and timelines will be suspended and resumed when it will not interfere with any criminal investigations. The Employer shall notify the employee being investigated of any extension. The notification shall include information on when the Employer anticipates completing the investigation and a detailed explanation of the reasons for the extension. If the investigation is not completed by the anticipated completion date the notification shall be repeated.

28.6 Alternative Assignments

An employee placed on an alternate assignment during an investigation will be informed of the reason(s) for the alternative assignment unless it would compromise the integrity of the investigation. Such a reassignment shall not result in the loss of base salary to the employee. The employee will not be prohibited from contacting their Union representative(s) unless there is a conflict of interest, in which case the employee may contact another Union representative. This does not preclude the Employer from restricting an employee's access to agency premises. Upon completion of the investigation process(es), the employee will be notified.

28.7 Pre-Disciplinary Meetings

Prior to imposing discipline, except oral or written reprimands, the Employer will offer the opportunity to schedule a pre-disciplinary meeting with the employee. Five (5) days prior to the pre-disciplinary meeting, the Employer will inform the employee and the Union of the reasons for the contemplated discipline and an explanation of the evidence and copies of written documents relied upon to take the action, including the Office of Professional Standards (OPS) investigative file.

Employees may request a shorter timeframe for the pre-disciplinary meeting. The employee will be provided an opportunity to respond in writing or in person.

28.8 Notice Prior to Reduction in Pay or Demotion

The Employer will provide an employee with fifteen (15) calendar days' written notice prior to the effective date of the reduction in pay or demotion.

28.9 Ability to Grieve Specific Discipline

The Employer has the authority to impose discipline, which is then subject to the grievance procedure set forth in Article 29, Grievance Procedure. Oral Reprimands, however, may only be processed through the Agency Head step of the grievance procedure.

28.10 Copy of Disciplinary Action Provided to Union

Copies of disciplinary actions, except for oral reprimands, will be sent to the Union at the time it is given to the employee.

ARTICLE 29
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

29.1 The purpose of this Article is to provide for an orderly method of resolving disputes over the provisions of this Agreement. 29.2 Terms and Requirements

A. Grievance Definition

A grievance is an allegation by an employee or a group of employees that there has been an act that violates this Agreement which occurred during the term of this Agreement. The term "grievant" as used in this Article includes the term "grievants."

B. Filing a Grievance

Grievances may be filed by the Union on behalf of an employee or on behalf of a group of employees. If the Union does so, it will set forth the name of the employee or the names of the group of employees.

C. Computation of Time

Days are calendar days, and will be counted by excluding the first day and including the last day of timelines. When the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the last day will be the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or holiday. Transmittal of grievances, appeals and responses will be in writing, and timelines will apply to the date of receipt, not the date of postmarking.

- D. Failure to Meet Timelines
The time limits in this Article must be strictly adhered to unless mutually modified in writing. Failure by the Union to comply with the timelines will result in the automatic withdrawal of the grievance. Failure by the Employer to comply with the timelines will entitle the Union to move the grievance to the next step of the procedure.
- E. Contents
The written grievance must include the following information:
1. The nature of the grievance;
 2. All pertinent facts or issues, including date of occurrence, upon which the grievance is based;
 3. The specific article and section of the Agreement violated;
 4. The specific remedy requested; and
 5. The name and signature of the grievant(s) or the Union representative.
- F. Modifications
No newly alleged violations may be made after the initial written grievance is filed, except by written mutual agreement.

- H. Withdrawal
A grievance may be withdrawn at any time.
- I. Resubmission
If terminated, resolved or withdrawn, a grievance cannot be resubmitted.
- J. Pay
Grievants will not lose pay for attending grievance meetings or arbitration hearings held during their work time. Grievants will not be paid for meetings held during their off-duty time.
- K. Consolidation
The Employer may consolidate grievances arising out of the same set of facts.

- L. Bypass
Any of the steps in this procedure may be bypassed with mutual written consent of the parties involved at the time the bypass is sought.
- M. Discipline
Disciplinary grievances will be initiated at the level at which the disputed action was taken.

29.3 Filing and Processing

- A. Filing
A grievance must be filed within twenty-one (21) days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance, or the date the grievant knew or could reasonably have known of the occurrence.

The employee may first discuss the issue with the immediate supervisor in an attempt to informally resolve the issue. The employee may elect to have a Union representative or Union steward present.

Even when informal discussions occur, the written grievance must be filed no later than the twenty-one (21) days described above.

- B. Alternative Resolution Methods
Any time during the grievance process, by mutual consent, the parties may use alternative methods to resolve the dispute. If the parties agree to use alternative methods, the time frames in this Article are suspended. If the selected alternative method does not result in a resolution, the Union may return to the grievance process and the time frames resume. Any expenses and fees of alternative methods will be shared equally by the parties.

- C. Processing

- 1. Step 1: Chief or Designee:

- If the issue is not resolved informally, the Union may file a written grievance with the Chief or designee, with a copy to the Human Resources Office within the twenty-one (21) day period described in Article 29.3\(A\).

- The Chief or designee will meet (or if mutually agreeable confer by telephone), with a Union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the grievance and will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting. With notice to the Chief or designee, one additional Union steward with knowledge relevant to the grievance may also participate in the conference, provided that the steward does so while in an unpaid status.

- 2. Step 2: Agency Head or Designee:

- If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the Union may move it to Step 3 by filing the written grievance with the Agency Head, with a copy to the Human Resources Office, within fifteen (15) days of the Union's receipt of the Step 2 decision. Upon agreement of the parties, the Agency Head or designee will meet or confer by telephone with a union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Step 3 grievance request. Management will provide a written response to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting and if the remedies are denied the response will include an explanation.

3. Step 3: Mediation or Pre-Arbitration Review Meeting:

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3, the Union may either file a request for mediation with Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) or file a demand for a pre-arbitration review meeting with a copy of the grievance and all responses attached.

A. Request for Mediation

The Union may choose to file a request for mediation with PERC in accordance with WAC 391-55-020, with a copy to OFM State Human Resources Labor Relations Section (LRS) at the email address labor.relations@ofm.wa.gov and the agency's Human Resources Office within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Step 3 decision.

B. Request for Pre-Arbitration Review Meeting (PARM)

As an alternative to requesting mediation, the Union may request a PARM. The PARM shall be filed with the OFM State Human Resources Labor Relations Section (LRS) at the email address labor.relations@ofm.wa.gov and the Agency's Human Resource Office within fifteen (15) days of the Union's receipt of the Step 3 decision. Within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the pre-arbitration demand, the LRS will either:

1. Schedule a PARM with the LRS negotiator or designee, an agency representative, and the Union's representative to review and attempt to settle the dispute. If the matter is not resolved in this PARM, within fifteen (15) days of the meeting, if the Union wants to move the dispute to arbitration, the Union must file a request for an arbitration panel with the American Arbitration Association (AAA), or Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC); or
2. Notify the Union in writing that no PARM will be scheduled. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of this notice, the Union may file a demand to arbitrate the matter with the AAA or Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC).

4. Step 4: Arbitration:

Filing Demand to Arbitrate

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 4, the Union may file a request for arbitration. The Union's request for arbitrators must be directly filed with the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) with a copy sent to OFM State Human Resources Labor Relations Section (LRS) at the email address labor.relations@ofm.wa.gov within fifteen (15) days of the mediation session or PARM.

A. Selecting an Arbitrator

The parties will select an arbitrator by mutual agreement or by alternately striking names from the list of arbitrators provided by the AAA or by request to the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) for a list of nine (9) arbitrators, and will follow the Labor Arbitration Rules of the AAA unless they agree otherwise in writing.

B. Authority of the Arbitrator

1. The arbitrator will:

- a. Have no authority to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement;
- b. Be limited in their decision to the grievance issue(s) set forth in the original written grievance unless the parties agree to modify it; and
- c. Not make any decision that would result in the violation of this Agreement.

2. The arbitrator will hear arguments on and decide issues of arbitrability before the first day of arbitration at a time convenient for the parties, immediately prior to hearing the case on its merits, or as part of the entire hearing and decision-making process. If the issue of arbitrability is argued prior to the first day of arbitration, it may be argued in writing or by telephone, at the discretion of the arbitrator. Although the decision may be made orally, it will be put in writing and provided to the parties.

3. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the Union, the Employer and the grievant.

C. Arbitration Costs

1. The expenses and fees of the arbitrator, and the cost (if any) of the hearing room will be shared equally by the parties.
2. If the arbitration hearing is postponed or canceled because of one party, that party will bear the cost of the postponement or cancellation. The costs of any mutually agreed upon postponements or cancellations will be shared equally by the parties.
3. If either party desires a record of the arbitration, a court reporter may be used. If that party purchases a transcript, a copy will be provided to the arbitrator, free of charge. If the other party desires a copy of the transcript, it will pay for one-half (1/2) of the costs of the fee for the court reporter, the original transcript and a copy.
4. Each party is responsible for the costs of its attorneys, representatives, witnesses, travel expenses and any fees. Grievants will be paid for participation in arbitration hearings and may use leave for preparation for and travel to or from arbitration hearings.

30.5 No Secret Files

Only one (1) official personnel file and one (1) OPS file shall be maintained on an employee. No secret personnel file or OPS file will be kept on any employee. This does not preclude a supervisor from maintaining notes on an employee's job performance for supervisory purposes.

If circumstances warrant retention of notes past an annual performance evaluation, it shall be purged upon the next annual performance evaluation. Employees retain a right to review their supervisory notes.

ARTICLE 31

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS AND DISABILITY SEPARATION

31.1 Reasonable Accommodations

A. Safety Accommodations

1. An employee may request a reasonable safety accommodation if the employee or the employee's family member is a victim or perceived victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking (victim). An employee may be required to show verification of the need for a safety accommodation by providing a police report showing the employee or family member was a victim, a court order protecting or separating the victim from the perpetrator of the act, or other evidence from the court or the prosecuting attorney to support the request. Documentation from an advocate for victims, an attorney, a member of the clergy or a medical or other professional who provides services to such victims may be provided, but it shall retain its confidential or privileged nature of communication pursuant to state law. An employee can also provide a written statement that they or a family member are a victim and in need of the safety accommodation. Verification of the familial relationship to the victim can be in the form of a statement from the employee, a birth certificate, court document, or other similar documentation.
2. A reasonable safety accommodation may include, but is not limited to:
 - a. A transfer, reassignment, modified schedule, changed work telephone number, changed work email address, changed workstation, installed lock, implemented safety procedure, or any other adjustment to a job structure, workplace facility, or work requirement in response to actual or threatened domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
 - b. Leave pursuant to Article 12, Article 13 and Article 17 may be considered a reasonable safety accommodation.
 - c. The Agency may deny a reasonable safety accommodation request based on an undue hardship, which means an action requiring significant difficulty or expense.

B. Pregnancy Accommodations

1. For purposes of this section, "pregnancy" includes the employee's pregnancy and pregnancy-related health conditions.

2. A pregnant employee may request a reasonable accommodation, which may include any of the following:
 - a. Providing more frequent, longer, or flexible restroom breaks;

 - e. Providing for a temporary transfer to a less strenuous or less hazardous position;
 - f. Providing assistance with manual labor and limits on lifting;
 - g. Scheduling flexibility for prenatal visits; and
 - h. Any further pregnancy accommodation an employee may request, and to which an Agency must give reasonable consideration in consultation with information provided on pregnancy accommodation by the Department of Labor and Industries or the attending health care provider of the employee.
3. The Agency may deny a reasonable pregnancy related accommodation based on undue hardship if the requested accommodation requires significant difficulty or expense. An Agency may not claim undue hardship for the accommodations listed above in 2(a), (b) and (d), or for limits on lifting over seventeen (17) pounds, and the Agency may not request written certification for those same accommodation requests.
4. The Agency will not require a pregnant employee to take leave if another reasonable accommodation can be provided.
5. An Agency, except for the limitations in (3) above, can require the employee to provide written certification from their treating health care professional regarding the need for a reasonable accommodation.
6. An Agency does not have to create a position for an employee asking for a pregnancy accommodation or transfer a less senior employee, or promote the pregnant employee as part of a reasonable accommodation.

C. Disability Accommodations:

1. The Employer and the Union will comply with all relevant federal and state laws, regulations and executive orders providing reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities.
2. An employee who believes that they suffer a disability and require a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of their position may request such an accommodation by submitting a request to the Agency.
3. Employees requesting accommodation must cooperate with the Agency in discussing the need for and possible form of any accommodation. The Agency may require supporting medical documentation and may require the employee to obtain a second medical opinion at agency expense. Medical information disclosed to the Agency will be kept confidential.
4. The Agency will determine whether an employee is eligible for a reasonable accommodation and the final form of any accommodation to be provided. An employee may request a status update after thirty (30) days of their request for a reasonable accommodation. The Employer will provide a response to the employee within five (5) working days of the employee's update request.

31.2 Disability Separation

- A. An employee with permanent status may be separated from service when the Agency determines that the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of the employee's position due to a mental, sensory, or physical disability, which cannot be reasonably accommodated pursuant to Subsection 31.1 C above. Determinations of disability may be made by the Agency based on an employee's written request for disability separation or after obtaining a written statement from a physician or licensed mental health professional. The Agency must make a disability determination within a reasonable amount of time after the submittal of this paperwork. The Agency can require an employee to obtain an independent medical examination at the Agency's expense, including paid time, from a physician or licensed mental health professional of the Agency's choice. Evidence may be requested from the physician or licensed mental health professional regarding the employee's limitations.

An employee may elect to have a second medical examination, at the employee's expense, if the employee disagrees with the results of the Agency's physician's exam. The employee must use approved leave for the second exam. Upon request, the Agency will provide a copy of the documents which were provided to the Agency's examining professional to the employee's selected examining physician. The results of this examination will be taken into consideration when making an accommodation or separation determination.

- B. The Agency may separate an employee when the Agency has medical documentation of the employee's disability and has determined that the employee cannot be reasonably accommodated in any available position, or when the employee requests separation due to disability.
- C. An employee separated due to disability, will be placed in the General Government Transition Pool Program if they submit a written request for reemployment and has met the reemployment requirements of WAC 357-46-090 through 105. Employees participating in the transition pool program shall have no right of appeal within the program.
- D. Disability separation is not a disciplinary action. An employee who has been separated due to disability may grieve their disability separation in accordance with Article 29, Grievance Procedure, unless separation was at the employee's request. Upon written request, an employee who grieves a disability separation will be provided a copy of the medical information the Agency used to make the disability separation determination.

ARTICLE 32

SENIORITY

32.1 Definition

- A. Seniority for full-time employees will be defined as the employee's length of unbroken state service. Seniority for part-time or on-call employees will be based on actual hours worked. Leave without pay of fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days or less will not affect an employee's seniority. When an employee is on leave without pay for more than fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days, the employee's seniority will not be affected when leave without pay is taken for:
 - 1. Military leave or United States Public Health Services Workers' compensation;
 - 2. Governmental service leave and leave to enter the Peace Corps, not to exceed two (2) years and three (3) months;
 - 3. Educational leave, contingent upon successful completion of the coursework;
 - 4. Reducing the effects of layoff; and/or

5. Compensable work related injury or illness leave.

When an employee is on leave without pay for more than fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days and the absence is not due to one of the reasons listed above, the employee's seniority date will be moved forward to an amount equal to the duration of the leave without pay. Time spent on a temporary layoff, will not be deducted from the calculation of seniority. Employees who are separated from state service due to layoff and are reemployed within three (3) years of their separation date will not be considered to have a break in service.

- B. For the purposes of layoffs and recall, a maximum of five (5) years' credit will be added to the seniority of permanent employees who are veterans or to their surviving spouse, or surviving state registered domestic partners as defined by RCW 26.60.020 and 26.60.030, as provided for in RCW 41.06.133.

32.2 Ties

If two (2) or more employees have the same date, ties will be broken in the following order:

- A. Longest continuous time within their current job classification;
- B. Longest continuous time with the Agency;
- C. Longest continuous time with the State; and
- D. By lot.

32.3 Semi-Annual Seniority List Posting

The Employer will prepare and post a seniority list and provide a copy to the Union by April 15th and September 15th of each year. The list will be updated annually and will contain each employee's name, job classification and seniority date. The list will be arranged in descending order of seniority. For the purpose of this posting, the seniority list will not include military service credit. Employees will have thirty (30) calendar days in which to appeal their seniority date to their Human Resources Office, after which time the date will be presumed correct.

- 32.4 For purposes of layoff, the Employer will, at least thirty (30) days prior to the layoff or upon request by the Union, provide the Union headquarters with the seniority list adjusted for military service credit without dates specified. The Union will provide the Employer with any known discrepancies in seniority as soon as known. The list will be arranged in descending order of seniority. The parties recognize that the list may change as new information is provided and therefore the parties agree that the list provided to the Union is an unofficial document intended only to supply general information based on DD214(s) on file with the agency.

LABOR MANAGEMENT COMMUNICATION COMMITTEE

34.1 Purpose

The purpose of the Labor Management Communication Committee(s) is to provide continuing communication between the parties and to promote constructive labor/management relations.

34.2 Committees

Labor Management Communication Committees will be established to discuss and exchange information of a group nature and general interest to both parties.

A. Composition

Labor Management Communication Committees will consist of up to four (4) employee representatives and up to four (4) Employer representatives.

The Employer and Union will be responsible for the selection of their own representatives. Additional paid staff of the Union and the Employer may also attend. If agreed to by both parties, additional representatives may be added.

B. Participation

1. The Union will provide the Employer with the names of their committee members at least ten (10) calendar days in advance of the date of the meeting in order to facilitate the release of employees. The Employer will release employee representatives to attend committee meetings if their absences do not cause a disruption of work. Employees will be granted reasonable time during their normal working hours, as determined by the Employer, to prepare for Labor Management Communication Committee meetings.

2. Labor Management Communication Committee Meetings will be held virtually. If the committee meeting occurs during the employee's regularly scheduled work time the employee will have no loss in pay, up to four (4) hours. If the employee elects to attend the meeting in person, travel to and from the meeting will not be compensated for or considered worktime. Use of a state vehicle for this purpose is strictly prohibited.

- E. Scope of Authority
Committee meetings will be used for discussions and issue resolution only, and the committee will have no authority to conduct any negotiations, bargain collectively or modify any provision of this Agreement. The Employer will inform the Union of changes in policies that affect mandatory subjects and the Union may request bargaining on mandatory topics. Nothing in this Article or any committee's activities will be subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

Nothing in this Article will restrict or inhibit the Union's right to demand to bargain on changes to mandatory subjects of bargaining not covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 35

UNION ACTIVITIES

35.1 Staff Representatives

- A. Within thirty (30) calendar days from the effective date of this Agreement, the Union will provide the Employer with a written list of staff representatives and the geographic jurisdictions for which they are responsible. Notification will include the approximate amount of time the steward expects the activity to take. Any agency business requiring the employee's immediate attention will be completed prior to attending the meeting. Attendance at meetings during the Union steward's non-work hours will not be considered as time worked. Union stewards may not use state vehicles to travel to and from a work site in order to perform representational activities, unless authorized by the Agency.

- C. If the amount of time a union steward spends performing representational responsibilities is affecting their ability to accomplish assigned duties, the Employer will discuss potential remedies with the employee and the Union.

35.3 Use of State Facilities, Resources and Equipment

A. Meeting Space and Facilities

The Employer's offices and facilities may be used by the Union to hold meetings, subject to agency policy, availability of the space and with prior written authorization from the Employer.

B. Supplies and Equipment

The Union and its membership will not use state-purchased supplies or equipment to conduct union business or representational activities. This does not preclude the use of the telephone for representational activities if there is no cost to the Employer, the call is brief in duration and it does not disrupt or distract from agency business.

C. E-mail, Fax Machines, the Internet, and Intranets

The Union and its members will not use state-owned or operated e-mail, fax machines, the Internet, or intranets to communicate with one another, except as provided in this Agreement. 35.4 Bulletin Boards

The Employer will maintain bulletin board(s) or space on existing bulletin boards currently provided to the Union for union communication. In bargaining units where no bulletin board or space on existing bulletin boards has been provided, the Employer will supply the Union with a board or space. Material posted on the bulletin board will be appropriate to the workplace, politically non-partisan, in compliance with state ethics laws, and identified as union literature. Union communications may not be posted in any other location in the Agency.

35.5 Union Training

The State agrees to release with pay all designated shop stewards and representatives for a bona fide training by the Union regarding labor relations with the State, for two (2) days per fiscal year, provided the absence does not cause a workload coverage issue. The stewards/representatives agree to provide their supervisors with fourteen (14) days' notice of the date of the training.

35.6 Contract Negotiations

Each Union may designate no more than two (2) bargaining unit members who will serve as the negotiation committee and will be allowed to attend up to ten (10) negotiation sessions, agreed upon by the Union and management, without loss of pay. The Union will notify the State of those members who will be designated as the bargaining team.

Employees will be allowed to bookmark and download a copy of the current Collective Bargaining Agreement on their agency computer.

35.8 New Employee Orientation/Access

C. The opportunity for contact under either A or B above must occur within ninety (90) days of the employee's start date within the bargaining unit.

D. No employee will be required to attend the meetings or presentations by the Union.

35.9 Information Requests

The Employer agrees to provide the Union, upon written request, access to available materials and information necessary for the Union to fulfill its statutory responsibility to administer this Agreement. The Employer will acknowledge receipt of the information request and will provide the Union with a date by which the information is anticipated to be provided. When the Union submits a request for information that the Employer believes is unclear or unreasonable, or which requires the creation or compilation of a report, the Employer will contact the Union representative and the parties will discuss the relevance, necessity and costs associated with the request and the amount the Union will pay for the receipt of the information.

ARTICLE 36

UNION DUES DEDUCTION AND STATUS REPORTS

36.1 Union Dues

36.2 Notification

- A. When the Employer hires, transfers, or promotes an employee into a classification represented by the Union, the Employer will notify the Union of that hire, transfer or promotion.
- B. The Employer will inform new, transferred, promoted, or demoted employees in writing prior to appointment into positions included in the bargaining unit(s) of the Union's exclusive representation status. The Employer will furnish the employees appointed into bargaining unit positions membership materials supplied by the Union. New employees will also be subject to the provisions of Article 35.8. The Employer will inform employees in writing if they are subsequently appointed to a position that is not in a bargaining unit.

36.3 Dues Cancellation

An employee may cancel payroll deduction of dues by written notice to the Union. After the Employer receives confirmation from the Union that the employee has revoked authorization for deduction, the cancellation will become effective not later than the second payroll after receipt of the notice.

36.4 Indemnification

The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that arise against the Employer for or on account of compliance with this Article and any issues related to the deduction of dues.

36.5 Employee Status Reports

- A. Every three (3) months, the Employer will provide to the Union a list of all employees in their bargaining units. The written list shall contain the Agency, employee's name, mailing address, job classification, work unit and bargaining unit code. The Union shall maintain the confidentiality of all employees' mailing addresses.
- B. Monthly, the Employer will provide the Union a list of all employees who have been appointed to, separated from, or promoted in or out of their bargaining units.

ARTICLE 37 CLASSIFICATION

37.1 Classification Plan Revisions

- A. The Employer will provide to the Union, in writing, any proposed changes to the classification plan including descriptions for newly created classifications. Agency initiated requests will be provided to the Union. The parties may then meet to discuss the assignment of new bargaining unit classes or the reassignment of existing bargaining unit classes to pay ranges.

- B. The Employer will assign newly created positions to the appropriate classification within the classification plan.

37.2 Position Review

Employee Initiated Review:

An individual employee who believes that the duties of their position have changed, or that their position is improperly classified may request a review according to the following procedure:

- A. The employee and/or the employee's immediate supervisor will complete and sign the appropriate form.
- B. The supervisor will then send the completed form to the Human Resources Office. The Human Resources Office will review the completed form. A decision regarding appropriate classification will then be made by the Employer.
- C. In the event the employee disagrees with the reallocation decision of the Agency, the employee may appeal the decision to the OFM State Human Resources Director within thirty (30) calendar days of being provided the results of a position review or the notice of reallocation. The OFM State Human Resources Director or designee will then make a written determination which will be provided to the employee.
- D. The employee or the Employer may appeal the determination of the OFM State Human Resources Director or designee to the Washington Personnel Resources Board within thirty (30) calendar days of being provided the written decision of the OFM State Human Resources Director or designee. The appropriate board will render a decision which will be final and binding.
- E. The effective date of a reallocation resulting from an employee request for a position review is the date the request was filed with the Agency.

37.3 Effect of Reallocation

- A. Reallocation to a Class with a Higher Salary Range Maximum
 - 1. If the employee has performed the higher level duties for at least twelve (12) months and meets the skills and abilities required of the position, the employee will remain in the position and retain existing appointment status.
 - 2. If the reallocation is the result of a change in the duties of the position and the employee has not performed the higher level duties for at least twelve (12) months, the Employer must give the employee the opportunity to compete for the position if they possess the required skills and abilities. If the employee is not selected for the position, or does not have the required skills and abilities, a layoff is triggered. If the employee is appointed, they must serve a trial service period.

- B. Reallocation to a Class with an Equal Salary Range Maximum
 - 1. If the employee meets the skills and abilities requirements of the position, the employee remains in the position and retains existing appointment status.
 - 2. If the employee does not meet the skills and abilities requirements of the position, a layoff is triggered.
- C. Reallocation to a Class with a Lower Salary Range Maximum
 - 1.
