2			COMPENSATION
3	43.1	Gene	ral Service Pay Range Assignments
4		A.	Effective July 1, 2021, each classification represented by the Union w	ill
5			continue to be assigned to the same salary range of the "State Gener	ral
6			Service Salary Schedule Effective January 1, 2019 through June 30, 201	9"
7			that it was assigned on June 30, 2021, except as otherwise specifical	lly
8			provided for in this article. Effective July 1, 2021, each employee w	ill
9			continue to be assigned to the same range and step of the State Gener	ral
10			Service Salary Schedule that they were assigned on June 30, 2021, exce	pt
11			as otherwise specifically provided for in this article.
12		B.	Effective July 1, 2022, all ranges and steps of the State General Service
13			Salary Schedule Effective July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2023 will be
14			increased by three and twenty-five hundredths percent (3.25%), percent
15			(3%), as shown in Appendix XX. This salary increase is based on the
16			General Service Salary Schedule in effect on June 30, 2022.
17		C ₿.	Minimum Wages Determined by Local Ordinances
18			Any employee who has a permanent assigned duty station within a loc	cal

2		than the minimum wage requirement of the local ordinance.
3		D. Employees who are paid above the maximum for their range on the effective
4		date of the increases described in Subsection C, above will not receive the
5		specified increase to their current pay unless the new range encompasses
6		their current rate of pay.
7	43.2	"IT" Professional Structure Pay Range Assignments
8		A. Effective July 1, 2021, Appendix G identifies the salary range and
9		classification assignment for the IT Professional Structure (ITPS) Range
10		Salary Schedule effective July 1, 2021 through June 30, 20223.
11		B Effective July 1, 2021, all salary ranges and steps of the "ITPS" Range
12		Salary Schedule will remain in effect until June 30, 2022 as shown in
13		Appendix G.
14		C. Effective July 1, 2022, all salary ranges and steps of the "ITPS" Range
15		Salary Schedule will be increased by three and twenty-five hundredths
16		percent (3.25%), as shown in Appendix XX.
17		D. Employees who are paid above the maximum for their range on the effective
18		date of the increases described in Subsection C above will not receive the
19		specified increase to their current pay unless the new range encompasses
20		their current rate of pay.
21	43. 3 2	Pay for Performing the Duties of a Higher Classification
22		Employees who are temporarily assigned the full scope of duties and
23		responsibilities for more than fifteen (15) calendar days of a higher-level
24		classification will be notified in writing and will be advanced to a step of the range

This tentative agreement will only become final if it is first determined to be financially feasible by OFM and subsequently funded by the Legislature in the 22-23 budget.

for the new class that is nearest to five percent (5%) higher than the amount of the pre-promotional step. The Employer may grant a higher salary increase as provided in Subsection 43.7 C. The increase will become effective on the first day the employee was performing the higher-level duties.

5 43.45 Establishing Salaries for New Employees and New Classifications

- 6 The Employer will assign newly hired employees to the appropriate range and step 7 of the appropriate State Salary Schedules as described in Appendices D and E.
- 8 Upon request of the Union, the Employer will bargain the effects of a change to an 9 existing class or newly proposed classification.
- 10 43.56 Periodic Increases

11

- Periodic increases are provided as follows:
- 12A.Employees who are hired at the minimum step of the pay range will receive13a two (2) step increase to base salary following completion of six (6) months14of service, and an additional two (2) step increase annually thereafter, until15they reach the top of the pay range.
- 16B.Employees who are hired above the minimum step of the salary range will17receive a two (2) step increase to base salary following completion of twelve18(12) months of service, and an additional two (2) step increase annually19thereafter, until they reach the top of the pay range.
- C. Employees in classes that have pay ranges shorter than a standard range will receive their periodic increases at the same intervals as employees in classes with standard ranges in accordance with Subsections 43.6 A and B, above.
- D. The effective date of the periodic increase will be the first day of the monthit is due.

This tentative agreement will only become final if it is first determined to be financially feasible by OFM and subsequently funded by the Legislature in the 22-23 budget.

- 6 A. Employees promoted to a position in a class whose salary range maximum 7 is less than fifteen percent (15%) higher than the salary range maximum of 8 the former class will be advanced to a step of the range for the new class 9 that is nearest to five percent (5%) higher than the amount of the pre-10 promotional step.
- 11 Β. Employees promoted to a position in a class whose salary range maximum 12 is fifteen percent (15%) or more higher than the salary range maximum of 13 the former class will be advanced to a step of the salary range maximum for 14 the new class that is nearest to ten percent (10%) higher than the amount of 15 the pre-promotional step.
- 16 C. Recruitment, Retention, Other Business Needs or Geographic Adjustments 17 The Employer may authorize more than the step increases specified in 18 Subsections 43.7 A and B, above, when there are recruitment, retention, or 19 other business needs, as well as when an employee's promotion requires a 20 change of residence to another geographic area to be within a reasonable 21 commuting distance of the new place of work. Such an increase may not 22 result in a salary greater than the range maximum.

This tentative agreement will only become final if it is first determined to be financially feasible by OFM and subsequently funded by the Legislature in the 22-23 budget.

6 An employee who voluntarily demotes to a position in a different job class with a 7 lower salary range will be placed in the new range at a salary equal to their previous 8 base salary. If the previous base salary exceeds the new range maximum, the 9 employee's base salary will be set equal to the new range maximum.

10 43.910 Transfer

A transfer is defined as an employee-initiated move from one position to another position within the college or district, in the same job class (regardless of assigned range) or to a different job class with the same salary range. Transferred employees will retain their previous base salary.

15 43.101 Reassignment

16 Reassignment is defined as an employer-initiated move of an employee within the 17 college or district from one position to another in the same class or a different class 18 with the same salary range maximum. Upon reassignment, an employee retains 19 their current base salary.

20 43.112 Reversion

Reversion is defined as voluntary or involuntary movement of an employee during the trial service period to the class in which the employee most recently held permanent status, or movement to a class in the same or lower salary range. Upon reversion, the base salary the employee was receiving prior to promotion will be reinstated.

10

43.134 Part-Time Employment

Monthly compensation for part-time employment will be pro-rated based on the ratio of hours worked to hours required for full-time employment. In the alternative, part-time employees may be paid the appropriate hourly rate for all hours worked.

11 43.145 Callback

12A.When an overtime-eligible employee has left the college/district grounds13and is called to return to the work station outside of regularly scheduled14hours to handle emergency situations that could not be anticipated, they will15receive three (3) hours penalty pay plus time actually worked. The penalty16pay will be compensated at the regular rate. Time worked will be17compensated in accordance with Article 7, Hours of Work, and Article 8,18Overtime.

- 19B.Time worked by an overtime-eligible employee immediately prior to the20regular shift does not constitute callback, provided time worked does not21exceed two (2) hours or notice of at least eight (8) hours has been given.
- C. Overtime-eligible law enforcement employees do not qualify for callbackpay.

D. An employee who is receiving standby pay is not entitled to callback penalty pay if required to return to work after departing the worksite or is

3	43.1 5 6 Shift Premium
4	A. Shift premium for employees assigned to a shift in which a majority of time
5	worked daily or weekly is between 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. will be one
6	dollar ($1.00) per hour or one hundred seventy-four dollars ($174.00) per
7	month.
8	B. Shift premium will be paid for the entire daily or weekly shift, which
9	qualifies under Subsection 43.16 A, above. Shift premium may also be
10	computed and paid at the above monthly rate for employees permanently
11	assigned to a qualifying afternoon or night shift.
12	C. An employee assigned to a shift that qualifies for shift premium pay will
13	receive the same shift premium for authorized periods of paid leave.
14	D. When an employee is regularly assigned to an afternoon or evening shift
15	that qualifies for shift premium, the employee will receive shift premium
16	pay during temporary assignment, not to exceed five (5) working days, to a
17	shift that does not qualify for shift premium.
18	43.1 6 7 King County Premium Pay
19	Employees assigned to a permanent duty station in King County will receive five
20	percent (5%) premium pay calculated from their base salary. When an employee is
21	no longer permanently assigned to a King County duty station, they will not be
22	eligible for this premium pay.

This tentative agreement will only become final if it is first determined to be financially feasible by OFM and subsequently funded by the Legislature in the 22-23 budget.

2	А.	An ov	vertime-eligible employee is in standby status while waiting to be
3		engage	ed to work by the Employer and both of the following conditions
4		exist:
5		1.	The employee is required to be present at a specified location or is
6			immediately available to be contacted. The location may be the
7			employee's home or other specific location, but not a work site away
8			from home.
9		2.	The Employer requires the employee to be prepared to report
10			immediately for work if the need arises, although the need might not
11			arise.
12	В.	Stand	by status will not be concurrent with work time.
13	C.	Emplo	oyees on standby status will be compensated at a rate of seven percent
14		(7%) a	of their hourly base salary for time spent in standby status.
15	43.189 Relocation Compensation
16	А.	The E	mployer may authorize lump sum relocation compensation, within
17		existing budgetary resources, under the following conditions:
18		1.	When it is reasonably necessary that a person make a domiciliary
19			move in accepting a reassignment or appointment; or
20		2.	It is necessary to successfully recruit or retain a qualified candidate
21			or employee who will have to make a domiciliary move in order to

Salary Overpayment Recovery

- 9 A. When the Employer has determined that an employee has been overpaid 10 wages, the Employer will provide written notice, via certified mail, to the 11 employee that will include the following items:
- 12 1. The amount of the overpayment;
 - 2. The basis for the claim; and
- 14 3. The rights of the employee under the terms of this Agreement.
- 15 B. Method of Payback
 - The employee must choose one (1) of the following options for paying back the overpayment:
- 18 1. Voluntary wage deduction;
- 19 2. Cash; or
- 20 3. Check.

The employee will have the option to repay the overpayment over a period of time equal to the number of pay periods during which the overpayment was made. The employee and the Employer may agree to make other repayment arrangements. The payroll deduction to repay the overpayment will not exceed five percent (5%) of the employee's disposable earnings in

- 1a pay period. However, the Employer and employee can agree to an amount2that is more than the five percent (5%).
- If the employee fails to choose one (1) of the three (3) options described above within the timeframe specified in the Employer's written notice of overpayment, the Employer will deduct the overpayment owed from the employee's wages over a period of time equal to the number of pay periods during which the overpayment was made.
- 8 Any overpayment amount still outstanding at separation of employment 9 will be deducted from the earnings of the final pay period.
- 10 C. Appeal Rights
- 11Any dispute concerning the occurrence or amount of the overpayment will12be resolved through the grievance procedure in Article 30 of this13Agreement.
- 14

43.201 Special Pay Salary Ranges

The Assistant Director of the State Human Resources or designee may adopt special pay salary ranges for positions based upon pay practices found in private industry or other governmental units. Current special pay practices at each college/district will continue.

19 43.212 Assignment Pay

Assignment pay is a premium added to the base salary and is intended to be used only as long as the skills, duties or circumstances it is based on are in effect. The Employer may grant assignment pay to a position to recognize specialized skills, assigned duties, and/or unique circumstances that exceed the ordinary. The Employer determines which positions qualify for the premium, as shown in Appendix K.
