1 C. Effective July 1, 2022, all salary ranges and steps of the “SP” Range Salary
2 Schedule will ~~remain status quo, using the July 1, 2020 through June 30,~~
3 ~~2021 “SP” Range Salary Schedule~~ be increased by three and twenty-five 4 hundredths percent (3.25%), as shown in Appendix C-2 (FY 23). This salary 5 increase is based on the “SP” Salary Schedule in effect on June 30, 2022.

6 D. Employees who are paid above the maximum for their range on the effective 7 date of the increases described in the preceding Subsection 41.2 C will not 8 receive the specified increase to their current pay unless the new range 9 encompasses their current rate of pay.

10 41.3 “ITPS” Pay Range Assignments

11 A. Effective July 1, 2021, each classification represented by the Union will 12 continue to be assigned to the same salary range of the “Information
13 Technology Professional Structure (ITPS) Range Salary Schedule – 14 Effective July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021” as it was assigned on June 15 30, 2021. Effective July 1, 2021, each employee will continue to be assigned 16 to the same step of the “ITPS” Range Salary Schedule that they were 17 assigned on June 30, 2021.

18 B. Effective July 1, 2021, all salary ranges and steps of the “ITPS” Range
19 Salary Schedule will remain status quo, using the July 1, 2020 through June 20 30, 2021 ITPS Range Salary Schedule, as shown in Appendix G-1 (FY 22).

22 C. Effective July 1, 2022, all salary ranges and steps of the “ITPS” Range
23 Salary Schedule will ~~remain status quo, using the July 1, 2020 through June~~ 24 ~~30, 2021 “ITPS” Range Salary Schedule~~ be increased by three and twenty-25 five hundredths percent (3.25%), as shown in Appendix G-2 (FY 23). This 26 salary increase is based on the “ITPS” Salary Schedule in effect on June 30,

3 B. Substitute teacher pay rates will be the same rate as the Vancouver School 4 District.

5 Certificated staff may have their salary paid over a twelve (12) month
6 period. Staff hired after the first scheduled day of school will receive a 7 prorated salary, based on number of working days.

8 41.5 Minimum Wages Determined by Local Ordinances

9 Any employee who has a permanent assigned duty station within a local jurisdiction 10 which has passed an ordinance establishing a minimum wage higher than the 11 minimum wage established in this Collective Bargaining Agreement, will be paid 12 no less than the minimum wage directed by the local ordinance. The Employer will 13 first consider the hourly wage of the employee's base salary plus the King County 14 premium pay (if applicable). If, after this consideration, the employee's salary is 15 still below the local ordinance minimum wage, the employee will be placed on a 16 step in the assigned salary range that is equal to or higher than the wage requirement 17 of the local ordinance.

18 41.6 Pay for Performing the Duties of a Higher Classification

19 A. Employees who are temporarily assigned the full scope of duties and 20 responsibilities for more than thirty (30) calendar days to a higher level 21 classification whose salary range maximum is less than fifteen percent 22 (15%) higher than the salary range maximum of the former class will be 23 notified in writing and will be advanced to a step of the range for the new 24 class that is nearest to five percent (5%) higher than the amount of the pre-25 promotional step.

26 B. Employees who are temporarily assigned the full scope of duties and 27 responsibilities for more than thirty (30) calendar days to a higher level 28 classification whose salary range maximum is fifteen percent (15%) or more 29 higher than the salary range maximum of the former class will be notified

1 41.7 Establishing Salaries for New Employees and New Classifications

2 The Employer will assign newly hired employees to the appropriate range and step 3 of the appropriate state Salary Schedule.

4 41.8 Periodic Increases

5 An employee's periodic increment date will be set and remain the same for any 6 period of continuous service in accordance with the following:

- 7 A. All employees' current periodic increment dates are retained.
- 8 B. Employees who are hired on or after July 1, 2007, at the minimum step of 9 their pay range will receive a two (2) step increase to base salary following 10 completion of six (6) months of continuous service and the date they receive 11 that increase will be the employee's periodic increment date. Thereafter, 12 employees will receive a two (2) step increase annually, on their periodic 13 increment date, until they reach the top of the pay range.
- 14 C. Employees who are hired on or after July 1, 2007, above the minimum step 15 of the pay range will receive a two (2) step increase to base salary following 16 completion of twelve (12) months of continuous service and the date they 17 receive that increase will be the employee's periodic increment date.
18 Thereafter, employees will receive a two (2) step increase annually, on their 19 periodic increment date, until they reach the top of the pay range.
- 20 D. Employees who are appointed to another position with a different salary 21 range maximum will retain their periodic increment date and will receive 22 step increases in accordance with paragraphs A-C above.
- 23 E. Except for Department of Natural Resources (DNR), seasonal career/cyclic 24 employees periodic increment dates will be adjusted for time not worked.
- 25 F. When a periodic increment date coincides with a promotional date, the 26 periodic increment date will be applied first.
- 27 G. All employees will progress to Step M six (6) years after being assigned to 28 Step L in their permanent salary range. The Employer may increase an 29 employee's step to Step M to address issues related to recruitment, retention 30 or other business-related reasons.

1 41.9 Salary Increases to Enhance Recruitment or Address Retention

2 The Employer may adjust an employee's base salary within their salary range to 3 address issues that are related to recruitment, retention, or other business-related 4 reasons.

5 41.10 Salary Assignment upon Promotion

6 A. Employees promoted to a position in a class whose salary range maximum 7 is less than fifteen percent (15%) higher than the salary range maximum of 8 the former class will be advanced to a step of the range for the new class 9 that is nearest to five percent (5%) higher than the amount of the pre-
10 promotional step. The Appointing Authority may approve an increase 11 beyond this minimum requirement, not to exceed the maximum of that 12 salary range.

13 B. Employees promoted to a position in a class whose salary range maximum 14 is fifteen percent (15%) or more higher than the salary range maximum of 15 the former class will be advanced to a step of the range for the new class 16 that is nearest to ten percent (10%) higher than the amount of the pre-
17 promotional step. The Appointing Authority may approve an increase 18 beyond this minimum requirement, not to exceed the maximum of the salary 19 range.

20 C. Geographic Adjustments

21 The Appointing Authority may authorize more than the step increases
22 specified in Subsections A and B, above, when an employee's promotion 23 requires a change of residence to another geographic area to be within a 24 reasonable commuting distance of the new place of work. This increase is 25 at the sole discretion of the Appointing Authority and is not subject to the 26 grievance procedure as outlined in Article 30. Such an increase may not 27 result in a salary greater than the range maximum.

28 41.11 Demotion

29 An employee who voluntarily demotes to another position with a lower salary range 30 will be placed in the new range at a salary equal to their previous base salary. If the 31 previous base salary exceeds the new range, the employee's base salary will be set 32 equal to the new range maximum.

33 41.12 Transfer

34 A transfer is defined as an employee-initiated move of an employee from a position 35 to another position within or between agencies in the same class (regardless of 1 assigned range) or a different class with the same salary range. Transferred 2 employees will retain their current base salary. If the previous base salary exceeds 3 the new range, the employee's base salary will be set equal to the new range 4 maximum.

5 41.13 Reassignment

6 Reassignment is defined as an agency-initiated move of an employee within the 7 agency from one position to another in the same class or a different class with the 8 same salary range maximum. Upon reassignment, an employee retains their current 9 base salary.

10 41.14 Reversion

11 Reversion is defined as voluntary or involuntary movement of an employee during 12 the trial service period to the class the employee most recently held permanent 13 status in, to a class in the same or lower salary range, or separation placement onto 14 the Employer's internal layoff list. Upon reversion, the base salary the employee 15 was receiving prior to promotion will be reinstated.

16 41.15 Elevation

17 Elevation is defined as restoring an employee to the higher classification, with 18 permanent status, which was held prior to being granted a demotion or to a class 19 that is between the current class and the class from which the employee was 20 demoted. Upon elevation, an employee's salary will be determined in the same 21 manner that is provided for promotion, 41.10, above.

22 41.16 Part-Time Employment

23 Monthly compensation for part-time employment will be prorated based on the 24 ratio of hours worked to hours required for full-time employment. In the alternative, 25 part-time employees may be paid the appropriate hourly rate for all hours worked.

26 41.17 Callback

27 A. Work Preceding or Following a Scheduled Work Shift
28 Overtime-eligible employees will be notified prior to their scheduled 29 quitting time either to return to work after departing the worksite or to 30 change the starting time of their next scheduled work shift.

31 1. Lack of such notice for such work will be considered callback and 32 will result in a penalty of three (3) hours of pay at the basic salary in 33 addition to all other compensation due. This penalty will apply to 34 each call.

1 2. The Employer may cancel a callback notification to work extra 2 hours at any time, but cancellation will not waive the penalty cited
3 in this Subsection.

4 3. These provisions will not apply to the mid-shift interval in a split 5 shift and an employee called back while in standby status.

6 B. Work on Scheduled Days off or Holidays
7 The Employer may assign employees to work on a day off or holiday.
8 Overtime-eligible employees will be notified of such assignments at least 9 prior to the employees' normal quitting times on their second workday 10 preceding the day off or holiday (except Sunday when it is within the 11 assigned work shift).

12 1. If the Employer does not give such notice, affected employees will 13 receive a penalty payment of three (3) hours pay at the basic salary 14 in addition to all other compensation due them.

15 2. The Employer may cancel work assigned on a day off or holiday.
16 However, if the Employer does not notify affected employees of 17 such cancellation at least prior to their normal quitting times on their 18 second workday preceding the day off or holiday work assignment, 19 affected employees will receive a penalty payment of three (3) hours 20 pay at the basic salary.

21 These provisions will apply to employees on paid leave status.

22 41.18 Shift Premium

23 A. For purposes of this Section, the following definitions apply:

24 1. Evening shift is a work shift of eight (8) or more hours which ends 25 at or after 10:00 p.m.

26 2. Night shift is a work shift of eight (8) or more hours which begins 27 by 3:00 a.m.

28 B. A basic shift premium of one dollar ($1.00) per hour will be paid to full-29 time employees who are regularly scheduled day shift employees whose 30 regular or temporary scheduled work shift includes hours after 6:00 p.m.
31 and before 6:00 a.m. where no overtime, schedule change pay, or callback

- 1 compensation is received. Shift premium is paid only for those hours 2 actually worked after 6:00 p.m. and before 6:00 a.m.
- 3 C. A basic shift premium of one dollar ($1.00) per hour will be paid to full-4 time employees under the following circumstances:
- 5 1. Regularly scheduled evening and night shift employees are entitled 6 to shift premium for all hours worked.
- 7 2. A regularly scheduled day shift employee who is temporarily 8 assigned a full evening or night shift where no overtime, schedule 9 change pay, or callback compensation is received. Shift premium is 10 paid only for all evening or night shift hours worked in this 11 circumstance.
- 12 3. Employees regularly scheduled to work at least one (1), but not all, 13 evening and/or night shifts are entitled to shift premium for those 14 shifts. Additionally, these employees are entitled to shift premium 15 for all hours adjoining that evening or night shift which are worked.
- 16 D. Part-time and on-call employees will be entitled to basic shift premium 17 under the following circumstances:
- 18 1. For all assigned hours of work after 6:00 p.m. and before 6:00 a.m., 19 as defined in Subsection 41.18 B above.
- 20 2. For assigned full evening or night shifts, as defined in Subsection 21 41.18 C above.
- 22 E. In cases where shift premium hours are regularly scheduled over a year, 23 agencies may pay shift premium at a monthly rate that is equal for all 24 months of the year. Monthly rates will be calculated by dividing twelve (12) 25 into the amount of shift premium an employee would earn in a year if the 26 hourly rules in Subsection 41.18 C.1 were applied.
- 27 F. When an employee is compensated for working overtime during hours for 28 which shift premium is authorized in this Section, the overtime rate shall be 29 calculated at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times the regular rate and the 30 shift premium combined.

1 G. Employees eligible for shift premium for their regularly scheduled shifts 2 will receive the same proportion of shift premium for respective periods of 3 authorized paid leave and for holidays not worked which fall within their 4 regularly scheduled shift.

5 41.19 Split Shift

6 When an employee's assigned work shift is split with a minimum of four (4) 7 intervening hours not worked, the employee will receive the premium rate set in 8 the shift premium rate designated in Subsection 41.18 B. The provisions of 9 Subsections 41.18 D, E and F will apply to employees working split shifts.

10 41.20 Standby

11 A. An employee is in standby status while waiting to be engaged to work by 12 the Employer and both of the following conditions exist:

13 1. The employee is required to be present at a specified location or is 14 immediately available to be contacted. The location may be the 15 employee's home or other specific location, but not a work site away 16 from home. When the standby location is the employee's home, and 17 the home is on the same state property where the employee works, 18 the home is not considered a work site.

19 2. The agency requires the employee to be prepared to report 20 immediately for work if the need arises, although the need might not 21 arise.

22 B. Standby status will not be concurrent with work time.

23 C. Employees reporting to work while in standby status are not entitled to 24 callback compensation as provided in Section 41.17.

25 D. When the nature of a work assignment confines an employee during off duty 26 hours and that confinement is a normal condition of work in the employee's 27 position, standby compensation is not required merely because the 28 employee is confined.

29 E. Overtime eligible employees on standby status will be compensated at a rate 30 of seven percent (7%) of their hourly base salary for time spent in standby 31 status.

1 F. Overtime exempt employees will be compensated twenty-five dollars 2 ($25.00) for each day or portion thereof spent on standby status. A day is 3 defined as a twenty-four (24) period beginning on the first hour an employee 4 is assigned standby status.

5 G. Employees dispatched to emergency fire duty as defined by 6 RCW 38.52.010 are not eligible for standby pay.

7 41.21 Relocation Compensation

8 A. The Employer may authorize lump sum relocation compensation, within 9 existing budgetary resources, under the following conditions:

10 1. When it is reasonably necessary that a person make a domiciliary 11 move in accepting a reassignment or appointment; or 12 2. It is necessary to successfully recruit or retain a qualified candidate 13 or employee who will have to make a domiciliary move in order to 14 accept the position.

15 B. If the employee receiving the relocation payment terminates or causes 16 termination of their employment with the state within one (1) year of the 17 date of employment, the state will be entitled to reimbursement for the 18 moving costs that have been paid and may withhold such sum as necessary 19 from any amounts due the employee. Termination as a result of layoff or 20 disability separation will not require the employee to repay the relocation 21 compensation.

22 41.22 Salary Overpayment Recovery

23 A. When an agency has determined that an employee has been overpaid wages, 24 the agency will make the necessary corrections going forward and will 25 provide written notice to the employee, which will include the following 26 items:

- 27 1. The amount of overpayment to be repaid;
28 2. The basis for the claim; and 29 3. The rights of the employee under the terms of this Agreement.

30 B. Method of Payback

31 1. The employee must choose one (1) of the following options for 32 paying back the overpayment:

- 1 a. Voluntary wage deduction;
2 b. Cash; or
3 c. Check.
- 4 2. The employee will repay the overpayment over a period of time
5 equal to the number of pay periods during which the overpayment 6 was made, unless a longer period is agreed to by the employee and 7 the agency.
- 8 3. If the employee fails to choose one (1) of the three (3) options 9 described above, within the timeframe specified in the agency's 10 written notice of overpayment, the agency will deduct the 11 overpayment owed from the employee's wages. This overpayment 12 recovery shall take place over a period of time equal to the number 13 of pay periods during which the overpayment was made.

14 C. Appeal Rights

15 Any dispute concerning the occurrence or amount of the overpayment will 16 be resolved through the grievance procedure in Article 30 of this 17 Agreement. Concurrent with the Union filing a grievance, the Employer, 18 upon written request from the Union, will suspend the recovery of the 19 overpayment until such time a determination regarding the overpayment 20 issue has been reached through the grievance process.

21 Any overpayment amount still outstanding at separation of employment 22 will be deducted from the employee's final pay.

23 41.23 Assignment Pay Provisions

24 Assignment pay is a premium added to base salary and is intended to be used only 25 as long as the skills, duties, or circumstances it is based on are in effect.

26 A. The Employer may grant assignment pay to a position to recognize 27 specialized skills, assigned duties, and/or unique circumstances that exceed 28 the ordinary. The Employer determines which positions qualify for the 29 premium.

30 B. Classes approved for assignment pay are identified in Appendix D.

4 in a dependent care reimbursement program for work-related dependent care 5 expenses on a pretax basis as permitted by federal tax law or regulation.

6 41.25 Pre-tax Health Care Premiums

7 The Employer agrees to provide eligible employees with the option to pay for the 8 employee portion of health premiums on a pretax basis as permitted by federal tax 9 law or regulation.

10 41.26 Medical/Dental Expense Account

11 The Employer agrees to allow insurance eligible employees, covered by this

16 41.27 Voluntary Separation Incentives – Voluntary Retirement Incentives

17 Agencies will have the discretion to participate in a Voluntary Separation Incentive 18 Program or a Voluntary Retirement Incentive Program, if such program is provided

20 with the program guidelines. Program incentives or offering of such incentives are 21 not subject to the grievance procedure.

22 41.28 Fire Duty Compensation – Department of Natural Resources

23 A. Compensation for Typical Fire Suppression Duties:

24 Department of Natural Resources (DNR) employees performing fire 25 suppression duties or other emergency duties when they are working under 26 the incident command system will be compensated as follows:

- 27 1. While performing emergency work under the incident command
28 system an employee's work is not exempt from the Fair Labor
29 Standards Act. Emergency work performed under the incident 30 command system will be compensated in compliance with federal 31 law and the terms of this Article.

3 periods less than five (5) hours.

4 Employees will be paid at one and one-half (1½) times the sum of 5 their regular hourly rate plus two dollars ($2.00)* for those hours 6 worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek as a result of 7 wildfire suppression and/or other emergency duties performed 8 under the incident command system. For purposes of this 9 Subsection, the regular hourly rate does not include any allowable 10 exclusion specified in Section 7.1.D of Article 7, Overtime.

11 *Note: If any other labor organization representing DNR employees 12 negotiates the same practice but at an amount greater than two 13 dollars ($2.00), then this amount will be increased to equal the 14 greater amount.

15 B. Compensation When Deployed to a Closed Satellite Camp:
16 A closed satellite camp means an employee is unable to leave at the end of 17 a work shift. When deployed to a closed satellite camp, employees will be 18 considered on twenty-four (24) hour duty. Pursuant to the Fair Labor 19 Standards Act (FLSA), bona fide meal periods and a bona fide scheduled 20 sleeping period of up to eight (8) hours are excluded from paid time.

21 When employees are deployed to a closed satellite camp the agency will 22 provide specific items after a twenty-four (24) hour grace period, which 23 commences when the incident command team initially deploys staff to the 24 closed satellite camp. The provisions are: a hot catered meal (hot can or 25 Alaska fresh food box); adequate sleeping facilities (this means a sleeping 26 bag and tent); and a sleep period of at least five (5) hours that is not 27 interrupted to perform fire duties. Should the agency not provide these 28 provisions in a closed satellite camp, the employee will be entitled to 29 twenty-four (24) hour pay without excluding bona fide meal or sleep periods 30 until the agency meets its obligation.
