The Ferries Division Assistant Secretary or designee will meet or confer by telephone with a Union steward and/or staff representative and the grievant within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the appeal, and will respond in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) days after the meeting.

Step 3 – Pre-Arbitration Review Meeting:

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the Union may request a pre-arbitration review meeting (PARM) by filing the written grievance including a copy of all previous responses and supporting documentation with the OFM State Human Resources Labor Relations and Compensation Policy Section (LRS) with a copy to the WSDOT ferries division Human Resource Office within fifteen (15) days of the Step 2 decision. Within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of all the required information, the LRS representative or designee will discuss with the Union:

1. If a PARM is scheduled with the LRS representative or designee, an agency representative, and the Union’s staff representative to review and attempt to settle the dispute.
2. If the parties are unable to reach agreement to conduct a meeting, the LRS representative or designee will notify the Union in writing that no PARM will be scheduled.

Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the request, a PARM will be scheduled. The meeting will be conducted at a mutually agreeable time. The proceedings of any PARM will not be reported or recorded in any manner, except for written agreements reached by the parties during the course of the PARM. Unless they are independently admissible, statements made by or to any party in the PARM, may not be:

1. Later introduced as evidence;
2. Made known to an arbitrator or hearings examiner at a hearing; and/or
3. Construed for any purpose as an admission against interest.

Step 4 – Arbitration

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3, or the LRS representative or designee notifies the Union in writing that no PARM will be scheduled, the Union may file a request for arbitration. The demand to arbitrate the dispute must be filed with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) within fifteen (15) days of the Union's receipt of the written notification of results of the PARM or receipt of the notice no PARM will be scheduled.

C. Selecting an Arbitrator

The parties will select an arbitrator by mutual agreement or by alternately striking names supplied by the FMCS.

D. Authority of the Arbitrator

1. The arbitrator will:

- a. Have no authority to rule contrary to, add to, subtract from, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement;
- b. Be limited in their decision to the grievance issue(s) set forth in the original written grievance unless the parties agree to modify it; and
- c. Not have the authority to order the Employer to modify their staffing levels, unless the arbitrator finds that the Employer has violated the staffing levels required by this Agreement.

2. The arbitrator will hear evidence and arguments on and decide issues of arbitrability before the first day of arbitration at a time convenient for the parties, immediately prior to hearing the case on its merits, or as part of the entire hearing and decision-making process, at the discretion of the arbitrator. If the issue of arbitrability is argued prior to the first day of arbitration, it may be argued in writing or by telephone, at the discretion of the arbitrator. Although the decision may be made orally, it will be put in writing and provided to the parties.

3. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the Union, the Employer and the grievant(s).

E. Arbitration Costs

1. The expenses and fees of the arbitrator, and the cost (if any) of the hearing room(s), will be shared equally by the parties.

2. If the arbitration hearing is postponed or cancelled at the request of one party, that party will bear the cost of the postponement or cancellation. The costs of any mutually agreed upon postponements or cancellations will be shared equally by the parties.

3. If either party desires a record of the arbitration, a court reporter may be used. The requesting party will pay the cost of the court reporter. If that party purchases a transcript, a copy will be provided to the arbitrator free of charge. If the other party desires a copy of the transcript, it will pay for half of the costs of the fee for the court reporter, the original transcript and a copy.

4. Each party is responsible for the costs of its representatives, attorneys, witnesses, travel expenses, and all other costs related to the development and presentation of their case. Every effort will be made to avoid the presentation of repetitive witnesses. The Union is responsible for paying any travel or per diem expenses for its witnesses, the grievant and the Union representative.

25.5 Delegates

- A. The Union may elect or designate a delegate or alternate delegate by classification who shall be recognized by the Employer. The delegate or alternate is recognized as an authorized representative of the Union for settling grievances and disputes. Representatives of management with authority to settle such matters will meet with the delegate and work for the resolution of grievances and disputes.
- B. A delegate will be allowed to attend grievance meetings, without loss of wages or benefits, scheduled by the Employer. Delegates will be allowed to investigate grievances during their normal work day provided no necessary and required work is interrupted by the delegate's absence and the delegate's supervisor has given the delegate prior approval to engage in such activity.

- 25.6 The contract grievance procedures of this Agreement shall be the exclusive remedy with respect to disputes arising between the Union and Employer, and no other remedies may be utilized by any grievant or the Union with respect to any dispute involving this Agreement until the grievance procedures have been exhausted. If a grievance is being processed pursuant to this Rule and an employee or the Union pursues the same dispute through any other channel or method, then the Union and the employee agree that the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.

- 1.2 A relief Watch Center Supervisor is a regular, full-time employee who has completed their probationary period and who is regularly scheduled to work forty (40) hours per workweek. The relief will be scheduled to fill all hours when Watch Center Supervisors are on scheduled leave. - 1.3 An on-call Watch Center Supervisor is an employee who has completed their probationary period and who is not guaranteed work hours. An on-call Watch Center Supervisor's work is intermittent in nature, sporadic and does not fit a particular pattern. An on-call will be used after the relief Watch Center Supervisor has been scheduled. To keep an on-call Watch Center Supervisor ready to cover a watch, they will be scheduled for forty (40) hours refresher training every one hundred twenty (120) days.

RULE 2 – SELECTION AND PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- 2.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Agreement, the selection and hiring of Watch Center Supervisors shall remain the responsibility of the Employer. The Employer shall first consider applicants for Watch Center Supervisor positions covered under this Agreement from qualified internal WSF candidates with at least two (2) years employment with WSF. This will include employment in the operations, deck, engine, information and terminal departments. If there are no qualified candidates, the Employer may consider qualified applicants from outside of WSF. A Watch Center Supervisor shall be included in the hiring process for the final selection of applicants, including on-call positions.
- 2.2 Newly hired employees shall have a six (6) month probationary period commencing with the employee's first watch. An employee terminated during the probationary period or at the end of the probationary period shall not have recourse to the grievance procedure. An employee's probationary period may be extended by agreement with the WSF and the Union.

RULE 3 – TRAINING

- 3.1 Fleet familiarization or re-familiarization training may be approved for a Watch Center Supervisor who requests it in order to garner specific awareness of an aspect(s) of WSF fleet operations and may involve visitation to WSF vessels and facilities. For efficiency purposes, the Watch Center Supervisor will group multiple location visitations while in travel or pay status, to the greatest extent possible. A written log or report documenting what was observed and/or knowledge gained or reinforced may be required by the Senior Operations Manager and may be shared with the other Watch Center Supervisors. The Watch Center Supervisor shall be compensated at the straight-time rate of pay for time spent completing the above log or report, which will not be counted towards the yearly training total.
- 3.2 Off-site visitation training may be approved for a Watch Center Supervisor who requests visitation of non-WSF sites, facilities and agencies for the purpose of enhancement or comprehension of the interaction between WSF and the non-WSF site or personnel visited. Any changes to “year round assignments” will be posted at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to implementation.

The affected employee will have the right to exercise their seniority rights and may bump a less senior employee. The re-bid shall take place ten (10) calendar days after such a change and be effective fifteen (15) calendar days after the completion of the re-bid process.
- 4.4 The Employer may utilize on-call employees in filling open assignments or shifts. The term “on-call employee” shall mean an employee who may or may not be working on a year round basis and who is not guaranteed any hours of work.
