Accordingly issues covering state employees other than under 47.64 are subject to negotiation, as the issues will apply to RCW 47.64 employees.

TENTATIVE AGREEMENT ONLY.

This tentative agreement will only become final if it is first determined to be financially feasible by OFM and subsequently funded by the Legislature in the 2023-2025 budget.

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION OF THE UNION

- 1.1 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive collective bargaining representative for all employees employed at the Washington State Department of Transportation Ferries Division (WSF) as identified in Appendix A and for any additional job classifications, office and administrative in nature, created during the term of this Agreement as specified in the MEC unit clarification order, for the purpose of establishing wages, hours and working conditions.

ARTICLE 2 UNION BUSINESS

The Employer and the Union agree not to discriminate against any employee because of their participation and/or activity on behalf of the Union.

2.2 Union Access

Authorized representatives of the Union shall be allowed to enter the Employer's premises where members of the bargaining unit are employed, at reasonable times. The Employer will issue the duly accredited representative a building pass for such a visit, if required, and the Union agrees that the Employer is absolved from all claims resulting from any accidents involving such representative while on the premises.

2.3 Shop Stewards

The Union shall have the right to establish shop stewards. The Employer shall be notified in writing of all employees designated as shop stewards. Employees designated by the Union as shop stewards may, upon notification and at a mutually agreeable time between the shop steward and supervisor, investigate, discuss and process grievances with bargaining unit members in accordance with Article 16, Grievance Procedure.

Union stewards will also be granted reasonable time during their normal working hours, as determined by the Employer, to prepare for and attend meetings scheduled by management for the following representational activities:

- A. Investigatory interviews and pre-disciplinary meetings involving employees represented by OPEIU;
- B. Union-Management Communication Committees and other committee meetings if such committees have been established; and/or
- C. Informal grievance resolution meetings, grievance meetings, alternative dispute resolution sessions, mediation sessions and arbitration hearings involving OPEIU represented employees held during their work time.

Time spent on representational activities during the union steward's non-work hours will not be considered as time worked.

2.4 Union Bulletin Boards

A bulletin board will be made available to the Union at work locations where bargaining unit members are permanently assigned. Information posted shall consist of official OPEIU bulletins containing no editorial comments.

2.5 Confidentiality

Employees have a right to confidentiality related to personal information and personnel issues to the extent provided/allowed by law. The Employer and the Union will take appropriate steps to maintain such confidentiality. When documents or information in an employee's personnel or supervisory file are subject to a public disclosure request, the Employer will provide an employee with a copy of the request at least seven (7) calendar days in advance of the intended release date. Prior to its release, the Employer will redact the employee's date of birth and social security number on any document subject to a public disclosure request, as allowed by law.

ARTICLE 3

The Employer shall provide the Union, which is the exclusive bargaining representative for all employees covered by this Agreement, with a list of new employees upon their hire date via e-mail. Such notice shall include the new hire's name, job title, work location, work phone number and work email. Union representative(s) will be allowed one-half (1/2) hour during the first month of employment of newly hired staff to meet with them and introduce them to the Union and the Collective Bargaining Agreement. The Employer shall deduct from salary payments the union dues, including initiation fee, and shall remit the same to the Union. An employee may cancel their payroll deduction of dues/initiation fee by written notice to the Union by certified mail return receipt hardcopy. After the Employer receives confirmation from the exclusive bargaining representative that the employee has revoked authorization for deductions, the Employer shall end the deduction no later than the second payroll after the receipt of the confirmation. No provision of this Article shall preclude an employee from executing any other right specified under RCW 47.64. All the unions shall, upon timely notification by WSF, negotiate certain issues with WSF on a coordinated bargaining approach. HIRING, ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGES, JOB POSTING PROCEDURE, AND PROBATION

6.1 Filling Positions

The Employer will determine if a position will be filled, the type of appointment to be used when filling the position (i.e. part-time, full-time, temporary), and the qualifications necessary to perform the duties of the specific position within a job classification. Only those candidates who have the position-specific qualifications required will be referred for further consideration by the Employer.

6.2 Job Posting Procedure

- A. Notice of all job vacancies involving job classifications represented by OPEIU, including project and temporary vacancies of an anticipated duration of ninety (90) calendar days or longer, shall be internally posted within WSF, no later than fifteen (15) calendar days after WSF has received all necessary approvals. The internal WSF posting shall be for a duration of seven (7) calendar days in all departments where employees of this Agreement are employed. If pressing business needs require a longer delay in posting or processing, the Employer shall inform the Union and shall discuss all relevant facts with the Union. The posted notice will include the current Job Specification and Classification Questionnaire for the qualifications and responsibilities of the vacant position. The Employer shall not be obligated to post the positions of employees who are selected to fill temporary vacancies beyond electronic e-mail.
- B. Employees, who make timely application during the seven (7) calendar days from initial date of posting and meet minimum qualifications, will be included in the internal WSF candidate pool for the vacant position. The seven (7) calendar day limit shall be extended for employees on approved leave, who request consideration, up to the time interviews are completed.
- C. Employees who make timely application for a vacant position will receive written notification of acceptance or rejection of their application prior to the announcement of the successful candidate. An announcement will be posted electronically notifying all employees of the candidate selected for the vacant position. The Employer will notify the employee in writing with the reason(s) the employee was not selected for the position.
- D. The awarding of all project, temporary, vacant and promotional positions will be subject to the seniority system of Article 12.

- E. The Employer will request from the Union a list of candidates available for referral.
- F. The Employer may post vacancies externally at the same time as the internal WSF posting described in 6.2(A), above. The Recruiter will not share the applications or other details of external applicants with the hiring manager until all internal applicants have been deemed unqualified. The Employer shall not be denied the right to employ an individual from outside sources once the provisions of Subsections 6.2(A), B, C, D, and E have been exercised and it has been determined that all bargaining unit employees who have applied through the internal job posting procedure are unqualified for the position.

6.3 Organizational Changes

- A. In the event that new facilities are added and/or eliminated, departments are reorganized and a revision of current staffing and/or job specifications occur that effect WSF employees represented by OPEIU Local 8, the Employer shall notify the Union a minimum of sixty (60) days prior to the planned implementation date of the event.
- B. The Union shall notify the Employer within thirty (30) days of having received the sixty (60) day notice regarding the Union's intent to exercise its right to bargain over the effects of the proposed changes. If the Union fails to respond within thirty (30) days, the Union waives all rights pursuant to this Section. The parties shall meet to discuss and/or negotiate where appropriate, wages, hours of work and conditions of employment for any employee(s) so affected within fifteen (15) days from the date the Employer receives the demand to bargain notification from the Union. Should the parties fail to reach an agreement where negotiations are required within fifteen (15) working days or after a mutually agreed upon extension, the Union may pursue the matter through the grievance procedure as specified in Article 16 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA).

6.4 Probationary Schedules

- A. Newly hired employees shall have a one-hundred eighty (180) calendar day probationary period to qualify for a position. A newly hired employee separated during the probationary period or at the end of the probationary period shall not have recourse to the grievance procedure. The probationary period may be extended an additional ninety (90) calendar days, provided that such extensions are not exercised on a regular basis. Prior to an extension occurring, the employee will be provided with a plan for improvement. The employee and the Union will be notified in writing of such action prior to the end of the initial one-hundred eighty (180) calendar day probationary period.
- B. An employee promoted or transferred to a new position shall have a ninety (90) calendar day trial service period, and shall receive the appropriate rate of pay for the new position during such trial service period. An employee determined to be unqualified for a new position during or at the end of the trial serving period shall be returned to the previously held classification at the former rate of pay with no loss of seniority and such action will not be subject to the grievance procedure, provided the employee and the Union receives written notice from the Employer containing the reasons for the reversion not less than seven (7) calendar days prior to the effective date of such reversion. An employee service a trial service period may voluntarily revert to their previously held position within fifteen (15) calendar days of the appointment. The trial service period may be extended an additional ninety (90) calendar days, provided that such extensions are not exercised on a regular basis and when an extension occurs the employee and the Union will be notified in writing of such action.

- C. The Employer retains the right to separate new employees during or at the end of the probationary period and the separation shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

6.5 Job Abandonment

- A. An employee absent from work for three (3) consecutive days who is not on an approved leave forfeits their employments rights, their seniority rights, and may be terminated from employment with WSF. Before this occurs, the employee shall be informed via a Loudermill meeting notice and be given an opportunity to attend the meeting. A five (5) day notice by registered letter to the employee's most recently updated address on file with Human Resources shall be deemed adequate, whether or not the employee signs for the letter. It is the employee's responsibility to maintain the correct address in Human Resources.

ARTICLE 7 DISCIPLINE

7.1 Just Cause

The Employer shall not discharge, suspend or discipline any employee without just cause. No employee shall be disciplined or discharged while on paid sick leave, on vacation or on an approved leave of absence. An employee, upon request, shall receive written notice from the Employer stating the true cause of termination.

Any oral warning, written reprimand, reduction in pay, suspension, demotions, or discharge shall not occur without just cause. It is understood and agreed by and between the Employer and Union that the employer shall administer progressive disciplinary action. Documented oral warnings will be identified as such.

Progressive discipline shall not apply where the offense requires more serious discipline in the first instance. The Employer will apply the level of discipline that best meets the severity of the issue.

7.2 Right to Representation

Upon request, employees will have the right to representation at all levels on any matter adversely affecting their conditions of employment. The exercise of this right will not unreasonably delay or postpone a meeting. Except as otherwise specified in this Agreement, representation will not apply to discussions with an employee in the normal course of duty, such as giving instructions, assigning work, informal discussions, delivery of paperwork, staff or work unit meetings, or other routine communications with an employee.

7.3 Types of Discipline

The Employer shall use a uniform system of written warning notices for poor work performance, formal reprimands, and suspensions. Employees shall be given an opportunity to read, sign and answer all written warning notices or performance evaluations before placement of such material into their personnel file. Copies of these notices shall be given to the employee at the time formal disciplinary action is taken. The employees shall be asked to sign any written warning notices. The employee's signatures thereon shall not be construed as admission of guilt or concurrence with the reprimand, but rather shall be requested as an indication that the employee has seen and comprehends the gravity of the disciplinary action taken. Employees shall have the right to review and comment on written warning notices and performance evaluations currently in their personnel file. Upon written request by the employee, the Union will be notified of all warning notices.

7.4 Verbal Warnings

Documented verbal warning notices provided for herein shall not remain in effect for more than twelve (12) months from the date of such warning notice and shall thereafter be purged from the employee's personnel file and supervisory/working file.

7.5 Retention of Discipline

A. Records of disciplinary actions involving reductions-in-pay, suspensions, demotions, and/or written reprimands will be removed after three (3) years if:

1. Circumstances do not warrant a longer retention period (i.e. legal reasons);
2. There has been no subsequent discipline; and
3. The employee submits a written request for its removal.

B. Nothing in this Section prevents the Employer from agreeing to an earlier removal date.

C. Where the adverse material or information related to alleged misconduct is determined to be unfounded or where an arbitrator does not uphold discipline at arbitration, all such adverse information in such situations will be promptly removed from the employee's files. The Employer may retain this information in a legal defense file.

D. If the Employer determines that a record will not be removed under subsection A, above, it will provide the employee with written response indicating that the record remains in the personnel file. The notice will include specific reasons for retaining the record.

7.6 Employee Files

Employees may review their personnel file at a mutually agreeable time upon request to the Human Resources Department. An employee may request copies of information in the personnel file and such information shall be provided by the Human Resources Department.

ARTICLE 8

NON-DISCRIMINATION AND REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

8.1 Discrimination

- A. The Employer and the Union are mutually committed to ending discrimination in any and all forms. To this end, the parties agree that they will not engage in any act or practice, or pursue any policy, which results in coercion, discrimination, or harassment because of race, creed, sex, age, color, national origin, veteran's status, military status, status as an honorably discharged veteran, disabled veteran, Vietnam era veteran, genetic information, political affiliation, marital status, sexual orientation, gender expression, gender identity, status as a breastfeeding mother, victim of sexual assault or domestic violence, or any real or perceived sensory, mental or physical disability, (unless reasonable accommodation is impossible or would impose an undue hardship). This prohibition of discrimination shall apply, but not be limited to: promotions, demotions, transfers, layoffs, disciplinary actions, terminations, rates of pay and forms of compensation, hiring, recruitment, referral for hiring, placement in a hiring pool, job advertising, career development, and selection of training, including apprenticeship.
- B. The Employer agrees to provide appropriate training and the Union agrees to support and encourage participation in training to positively accept the cultural diversity that exists in the workplace and to understand as well as prevent all forms of discrimination and harassment.
- C. The Parties to the contract agree that the acts of coercion, discrimination, and harassment are intolerable and shall be subject to appropriate discipline.

- 8.2 The Employer agrees to the principle of equal pay for equal work, and agrees that there shall be no discrimination exercised in the bargaining unit in this respect.

8.3 Disability Accommodations

WSF will at all times comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and RCW 49.60 et Seq. and Department of Transportation policies regarding reasonable accommodation as those statutes and policies apply to WSF operations. In a case where an employee has a disability, as defined by ADA or comparable statutes, WSF shall consider a reasonable accommodation that allows an employee to perform the essential job functions of the classification for which they are otherwise qualified. Employees requesting accommodation shall actively participate with WSF in discussing the need for and possible form of any accommodation. WSF may require supporting medical documentation and may require the employee to obtain a second medical opinion at agency expense. Medical information discussed to WSF will be kept confidential. WSF will contact the Union representative and discuss a proposed accommodation in cases where there could be a perception that an accommodation violates the union agreement. Although the specific medical condition of the employee will not be disclosed to the Union without the employee's written approval, WSF will notify the Union the employee has a medical condition requiring accommodation, and WSF will attempt to work with the Union to obtain Union agreement.

8.4 Safety Accommodations

- A. An employee may request a reasonable safety accommodation if the employee or the employee's family member is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking (victim). An employee may be required to show verification of the need for a safety accommodation by providing a police report showing the employee or family member was a victim, a court order protecting or separating the victim from the perpetrator of the act, or other evidence from the court or the prosecuting attorney to support the request. Documentation from an advocate for victims, an attorney, a member of the clergy or a medical or other professional who provides services to such victims may be provided, but it shall retain its confidential or privileged nature of communication pursuant to state law. An employee can also provide a written statement that they or a family member are a victim in need of the safety accommodation. Verification of the familial relationship to the victim can be in the form of a statement from the employee, a birth certificate, court document, or other similar documentation.
- B. A reasonable safety accommodation may include, but is not limited to:
 - 1. A transfer, reassignment, modified schedule, changed work telephone number, changed work email address, changed workstation, installed lock, implemented safety procedure, or any other adjustment to a job structure, workplace facility, or work requirement in response to actual or threatened domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
 - 2. Leave pursuant to Article 10 or Article 11 may be considered a reasonable safety accommodation.

3. The Employer may deny a reasonable safety accommodation request based on an undue hardship, which means an action requiring significant difficulty or expense.

8.4 Pregnancy Accommodations

- A. For purposes of this Section, "pregnancy" includes the employee's pregnancy and pregnancy related health conditions.
- B. A pregnant employee may request a reasonable accommodation, which may include any of the following:
 1. Providing more frequent, longer, or flexible restroom breaks;
 2. Modifying a no food or drink policy;
 3. Job restructuring, part-time or modified work schedules, reassignment to a vacant position, or acquiring or modifying equipment, devices, or an employee's work station;
 4. Providing seating or allowing the employee to sit more frequently if her job requires her to stand;
 5. Providing for a temporary transfer to a less strenuous or less hazardous position;
 6. Providing assistance with manual labor and limits on lifting;
 7. Scheduling flexibility for prenatal visits; and
 8. Any further pregnancy accommodation an employee may request, and to which an Employer must give reasonable consideration in consultation with information provided on pregnancy accommodation by the department of labor and industries or the attending health care provider of the employee.
- C. The Employer may deny a reasonable pregnancy related accommodation based on undue hardship if the requested accommodation requires significant difficulty or expense. An Employer may not claim undue hardship for the accommodations listed above in (B)(1), (2) and (4), or for limits on lifting over seventeen pounds, and the Employer may not request written certification for those same accommodation requests.
- D. The Employer will not require a pregnant employee to take leave if another reasonable accommodation can be provided.
- E. An employer, except for the limitations in (C) above, can require the employee to provide written certification from their treating health care professional regarding the need for a reasonable accommodation.

- F. An employer does not have to create a position for an employee asking for a pregnancy accommodation or transfer a less senior employee, or promote the pregnant employee as part of a reasonable accommodation.

ARTICLE 9

- A. The regular hours of work shall not exceed eight (8) hours in any one (1) day or forty (40) hours in any one (1) week. Except as provided elsewhere in the Agreement, the normal workweek, except for the Dispatch Department, will consist of Monday through Friday.

For time worked in excess of one (1) hour, overtime will be paid at one and one-half (1½) the employee's straight-time rate of pay in one (1) hour increments in accordance with all applicable terms of this Agreement. By mutual consent, compensatory time off may be scheduled in lieu of receiving overtime pay (see Section 9.9).

9.3 Alternate Workweek

Work weeks of hours different than work weeks in Section 9.1 above, may be established by the Employer in order to meet business and/or customer service needs, as long as the alternate work schedule complies with federal and state laws. The Employer will provide a thirty (30) days' written notice to the affected employee(s) and the Union prior to implementing an alternate work week, not to include Relief Dispatchers.

3. The last four (4) digits of the employees' Social Security number, with the larger number ranking ahead of smaller numbers.

B. Application of Seniority

Seniority shall be the determining factor in layoff and recall from layoff, transfers in accordance with job posting procedures, shift changes and vacations, in accordance with the posting provisions of this Section unless ability and qualifications are unequal, in which event seniority will not be the determining factor. The arbitrator will hear arguments on and decide issues of arbitrability before the first day of arbitration at a time convenient for the parties, through written briefs, immediately prior to hearing the case on its merits, or as part of the entire hearing and decision-making process. If the issue of arbitrability is argued prior to the first day of arbitration, it may be argued in writing or by telephone, at the discretion of the arbitrator. Although the decision may be made orally, it will be put in writing and provided to the parties.
