

WAC 357-13-090 How is an employee affected when ((his/her)) their position is reallocated?

This table is used to determine how an employee whose position is reallocated is affected.
	Employee's position reallocated to:
	Class with a higher salary range maximum	Class with an equal salary range maximum	Class with a lower salary range maximum
Reallocation results from:
A position review requested by the employee or initiated by the employer	If the employee has performed the higher level duties for at least six months and meets the competencies and other position requirements: → The employee remains in the position and is appointed with permanent status provided the probationary or trial service period for the class to which the position is reallocated is six months in duration. If the probationary period or trial service period is longer than six months and the employee has not performed higher level duties for the length of the probationary period or trial service period, the employer may require the employee serve the remainder of the probationary or trial service period before gaining permanent status in the reallocated position. If the reallocation is the result of a change in the duties of the position and the employee has not performed the higher level duties for six months or more: → The employer must give the employee the opportunity to compete for the position. The employer may choose to promote the employee without competition as long as the employee meets the competencies and any other position requirements. If the employee is not selected for the position, the employer's layoff procedure applies. If the employee is appointed and ((he/she)) has already gained permanent status, the employee must serve a trial service period. If the employee has not completed the probationary period, then the new trial service period will overlap provided the higher and lower classes are in the same or a closely related field. If the classes are not in the same or closely related field, then the employee will start their probationary period over in the new class.	If the employee meets the competencies and other position requirements: → The employee remains in the position and retains existing appointment status. → The employee retains the previous base salary in accordance with WAC 357-28-120. If the employee does not meet the competencies and other position requirements:	If the employee meets the competencies and other position requirements and chooses to remain in the reallocated position: → The employee retains appointment status; has the right to be placed on the employer's internal layoff list and in the general government transition pool; and has ((his/her)) their salary set in accordance with WAC 357-28-120. If the employee chooses to vacate the position or does not meet the competencies and other position requirements: → The employer's layoff procedure applies.
