

Specification for Class of

SECRETARY SENIOR

Abolished Effective June 1, 2005CLASS SERIES INTENT

In support of a supervisor and/or staff members, provides secretarial services and assistance for the purpose of facilitating the supervisor's and/or staff members' own work and relieving the supervisor and/or staff members of day-to-day clerical detail. Applies knowledge of supervisor's and/or staff members' work commitments including status of projects and nature of contacts. Secretarial duties include making travel arrangements, scheduling meetings, taking notes and transcribing minutes, screening calls and visitors, keeping supervisor's and/or staff members' calendar(s) and committing supervisor's and/or staff members' time.

Definition: Performs complex secretarial duties.

Distinguishing Characteristics: Performs complex secretarial duties such as independently prioritizing work, monitoring and evaluating budget(s) status and initiating corrections, developing travel itineraries, compiling reports, studies, applications, and developing, modifying, and/or maintaining data base management, office record keeping, or filing system(s). Establishes office procedures, standards, priorities, and deadlines, and coordinates office operations. Has frequent contacts with clients, the public, staff members from other departments, students, and faculty. Initiates action to ensure work unit and/or office goals are met.

Assignments and projects are of a complex nature. Independent performance of complex secretarial assignments requires substantive knowledge of a variety of regulations, rules, policies, procedures, processes, materials, or equipment. Problems are resolved by choosing from established procedures and/or devising work methods. Plan and organize work. Guidance is available for new or unusual situations. Deviation from established parameters requires approval. Work is periodically reviewed to verify compliance with established policies and procedures.
