

KD Hall

---

KD Hall is the epitome of a networking and corporate problem solver genius. Her production and problem-solving skills are not the only things that set her apart. With years of experience in higher education, communication management, strategic professional planning and training, KD is equipped to handle a copious number of tasks with integrity and poise. She is a visionary, a creator, a leader in workforce development and women initiatives including gender pay inequity. Her high energy and hardworking core keeps her motivated while assisting clients to achieve their professional goals. She also serves as an affiliate professor in the Master's of Communications: Communications Leadership program at the University of Washington and holds her own as a professional speaker, moderator, producer, author, spokesperson, and special interest journalist. She is also the President-elect of the Seattle Globalist, member of the Washington State Women's Commission Task Force, 2019 Cohort Women on the Watch recipient from the South Sound Magazine, and author of an upcoming white paper Parity in the Workplace. Not to mention she holds a Bachelor's degree in Mass Communication with a minor in Broadcasting Journalism, MBA, and Master in Adult Education— Leadership and Training.

KD co-founded her communications firm KD Hall Communications, LLC in 2015 and has since been extremely impactful across corporate and government sectors. Her communications firm specializes in public relations, storytelling, and organizational development. KD also co-founded KD Hall Foundation in 2015, since its inception they have been extremely impactful across the corporate and private sectors and the community at large. KD teaches at University of Washington School of Masters in Communication. As a result, the KD Hall team have been invited to the White House, received 20 proclamations, and successfully guided 60 students through an experiential internship for producing 3 Women on The Rise conferences as well as 4 Women's History Month conferences.

KD and David Hall have been married for a lovely 12 years and she is the mother of 5 year-old Kakela Hall Jr. and 2-year-old Chase Hall. Balancing family, non-profit and work is KD's passion.