

Parfait Bassalé

A true catalyst for peace, Parfait Bassalé continues to work tirelessly to promote cross-cultural understanding across the globe. Artist and speaker, Parfait uses songs and stories to trigger and teach empathy. Mr. Bassalé has addressed and engaged global citizens all over the world on diversity, equity and inclusion. A graduate of Portland State University, Parfait's background is in Conflict and Dispute Resolution with a focus on empathy and interpersonal neurobiology.

Additionally, before moving to the USA, Mr. Bassalé lived in multiple countries in West Africa and has additional social ties in Europe and the Middle East. Parfait brings to the table this unique experience and perspective as he presents and sings about issues of Diversity, Equity and inclusion. He is currently the Director of the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Center at South Puget Sound Community College in Olympia Washington.