Section 5 - Communication Standards

Document in the comment box below any agreement between the employee and supervisor regarding communication expectations. Address specifics regarding check-ins, virtual meeting participation, and methods of communication that the employee is expected to respond to.

Section 6 - Tasks and Measures

Select one of the following options:

Option 1: The employee will perform all the position's tasks and essential functions as listed on the attached Position Description Form.

Option 2: The employee has specific tasks that they cannot perform while teleworking. If this option is selected, the employee cannot telework full-time and will need to report in-person to perform those tasks.

If option 2 is selected, describe:

Section 7 - Travel Expectations

The employee should work with their supervisor to answer the following questions:

Will the employee be required to travel to their official duty station or a different location?

Yes No

If so, describe the travel expectations, including frequency of travel and amount of notice the employer will provide before the employee is expected to travel.

Will the organization cover the employee's travel expenses? Yes No

If yes, describe the reason, justification, and specific circumstances in which travel will be reimbursed. This must follow RCW 42.52 Ethics in Public Service, and SAAM Chapter 10.

Section 8 - Equipment Inventory

All employer-provided items remain the property of the organization and must be returned to the organization immediately upon request. Teleworking will not result in duplication of equipment. For technical support, contact your agency's Help Desk.

All organization-owned equipment that will be used while teleworking must be documented below. Please note that you (the employee) should complete an Employee Equipment Waiver Request Form if you need additional equipment that is not currently in your possession.
