Ethnic Origin

- Use the Ethnic Origin Crosswalk below to determine the appropriate Ethnic Origin selection in HRMS.

In the example to the right, Ethnic Origin was set to Hispanic/Latino even though multiple races were selected. This is because the crosswalk indicates Hispanic/Latino always overrides any race combination.

Ethnic Origin Crosswalk

If Ethnicity is:	and Race is:	then Ethnic Origin should be:
Hispanic/Latino	(blank)	Hispanic
Hispanic/Latino	American Indian/Alaska Native	Hispanic
Hispanic/Latino	Asian	Hispanic
Hispanic/Latino	Black or African American	Hispanic
Hispanic/Latino	Native Hawaiian or Other Pac Islander	Hispanic
Hispanic/Latino	White	Hispanic
Hispanic/Latino	any race combination	Hispanic
Not Hispanic/Latino	(blank)	White/Not Hispanic origin

Not Hispanic/Latino	Native Hawaiian or Other Pac Islander + White	Asian or Pacific Islander
Not Hispanic/Latino	White	White/Not Hispanic origin

Note: When Ethnic Origin and Ethnicity fields are both populated, HRMS will display a warning message "Ethnicity(New) field maintained thus Ethnic origin field is disregarded". This message is referring to the Ethnic Origin field being disregarded on the EEO-4 report. If the Ethnicity is set to Not Hispanic/Latino, then one or more Race check boxes must be selected or the employee will not be counted in the male/female by race columns on the EEO-4 report.

Military Status

Military Status is collected to help determine an employee's eligibility for veteran's preference in a layoff. Prior to granting any veteran's preference, review the employee's DD Form 214 or alternate verification of military service and confirm they meet the requirements of the rule. This information is collected and confirmed prior to a layoff and not typically used in enterprise reporting. Employees can view this field in MyPortal, but are instructed to contact their HR Office if it is incorrect.

- Enter the military status provided by the employee into HRMS by selecting the corresponding option in the Military Status drop down menu.

Military status	Discharge w/dis<1yr Srvc

Notes:

Selecting an option under Military status will trigger completion of the Military Service (0081) infotype. Refer to the Military Service - Create New Record and Military Service - Change Existing Record procedures for creating and correcting that infotype.

The following Military Status selections are no longer used: Rtrd Dis Vet > $500, Rtrd Dis VtnmVet > $500, Rtrd VtnmVet > $500, Sep/Rtrd Dis VtnmVet<$500, and Sep/Rtrd VtnmVet < $500.

The Seniority w Military (29) date type is available in HRMS to track military service that has been verified and meets layoff preference requirements.

EEO Exemption Status

- Check the “Exempt from EEO” box in HRMS if an employee is exempt from federal Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) reporting.
- During a rehire or appointment change action, be sure to review the employee’s EEO Exemption status and update when necessary.

Notes: The EEO Exemption only applies to federal reports to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Affirmative Action reports within the state of Washington include all employees – including those marked Exempt from EEO in HRMS.

The screenshot displays the 'Additional Personal Data' form in HRMS. It includes fields for 'Ethnic origin' (Hispanic) and 'Ethnicity(New)' (Hispanic/Latino). A 'Race Data' section contains a list of race categories with checkboxes: 'Race Category' (checked), 'American Indian/Alaskan Native' (checked), 'Asian' (unchecked), 'Black or African American' (checked), 'Native Hawaiian or Other Pac Islander' (unchecked), and 'White' (unchecked). Below this is a 'Military status' dropdown set to 'Non/Unspec Vet's Status' and a 'Health Insurance Claim Number' field. At the bottom, the 'Exempt from EEO' checkbox is highlighted with a red box and is currently unchecked.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, section 701(f) provides the definition of employees exempt from EEO reporting:

(f) The term “employee” means an individual employed by an employer, except that the term “employee” shall not include any person elected to public office in any State or political subdivision of any State by the qualified voters thereof, or any person chosen by such officer to be on such officer’s personal staff, or an appointee on the policy making level or an immediate adviser with respect to the exercise of the constitutional or legal powers of the office. The exemption set forth in the preceding sentence shall not include employees subject to the civil service laws of a State government, governmental agency or political subdivision.

Veteran Status

Veteran data is collected from the employee to help determine workforce representation. This helps agencies and the enterprise develop and implement affirmative action plans and strategies to ensure fair representation and make our workforce more diverse and inclusive. This helps agencies and the enterprise develop and implement affirmative action plans and strategies to ensure fair representation and make our workforce more diverse and inclusive. Employees can view and update this information in MyPortal.

Disability information is often disclosed through other HR related processes; however, the employee must authorize any changes to their disability status for affirmative action purposes.

- Use the Disability Status Crosswalk below to determine the appropriate Disability Status selection in HRMS based on the employee's selection on the employee data form.

Disability Status Crosswalk

Question	Response	HRMS Disability Status Selection
Are you a person with a disability?	Yes	Has a disability (or previously had one)* (enter Disability Date and Date Learned)
	No	Does not have a disability
	Blank	Not informed/unknown

*Do not include those who previously had a disability since they no longer meet the definition. Use Does not have a disability instead.

Notes:

The Disability Date is not used by the state of Washington; however HRMS requires an entry if the Disability Status is set to Has a Disability (X). If you know the employee's disability date, enter that date; otherwise, enter the date you learned of the disability (same date as the Date Learned field).

Medical documentation is not required to confirm a disability for affirmative action purposes - the employee's attestation of the disability is sufficient. Data for persons with disabilities comes solely from the Disability check box and does not consider the Special Disabled Veteran box.

7. Are you a person with a disability?

Veterans with a service-connected disability may also meet the definition of a person with a disability. Select both if applicable.

Employees can view and update this field in MyPortal.
