AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 23-24-024, filed 11/28/23, effective 1/1/24)

WAC 357-16-017 When must an employer disclose the salary range ((er)), management band, or fixed wage, and other compensation and a description of benefits for a position? In accordance with RCW 49.58.110, an employer must disclose the salary range or management band, except where the employer is offering only a fixed wage amount, the employer must disclose the fixed wage amount rather than a salary range or management band, in the following circumstances:

- (1) In each job posting which includes a general description of all the benefits and other compensation; and
- (2) Upon request of a current employee who is offered an appointment to another position.
  - (3) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) "Employer" also includes those employers with fewer than 15 employees;
  - (b) "Salary range" includes Step M; and
- (c) "Management band" is the most reasonable and genuinely expected range that an agency has identified within their salary administration policy for Washington management services.
